OLD CASTLE

Coach Howard Hancock . . .

Has done much in the past two years to raise the standard of athletics at Old Normal. Students and followers of I.S.N.U. are confident that athletics will attain a high level under his capable leadership.

Athletics . . .

What a splendid chance it offers to all who pride themselves in keen competition . . . True, there are scoffers who think it nonsense . . . But they lack the spirit and don't know the satisfaction found in sport . . . They are merely existing, not living! For no matter what the goal may be . . . a personal or team supremacy . . . in both are found ardent sportsmanship and real enjoyment . . . Football . . . where sagacity and body strength are allied . . . Basketball . . . in which supreme endurance is tried . . . Track . . . the sport of the ancient Greeks and is still the greatest test of accomplishment . . . All are games, and yet schools . . . Schools where co-ordination is taught . . . So to those who revel in keen competition . . . to those who are really living, and at the same time improving their lives and the lives of others . . .

This volume is dedicated . . .

Coach Cogdal's 1931 cagers brought the first Conference Basketball championship to Normal in twenty years. The Redbirds coasted through a conference schedule of thirteen games with only one defeat at the hands of St. Viator on their own court. Normal was the scene of much festivity in celebration of the championship as they cinched the title in the final game by a decisive victory over Wesleyan.

The following fall the Redbird harriers brought the second conference title in one year to Normal when they won the Little Nineteen Cross Country meet. The Harriers established new low record marks in winning all their dual meets.

Normal outclassed everything in the Little Nineteen Conference when they carried home the banners in 1932 Indoor and Outdoor Meets. In the former at Naperville, the Birdies set a new record high score. At the Outdoor Meet at Monmouth, the cindermen established four new conference records when they decisively won the meet.

Joe Cogdal's harriers remained stylish when they brought the third conference championship to Normal in the same year. Incidentally, it was their second consecutive title. They continued victorious by winning the Loyola Invitational handily and climaxed with second in the National Meet.

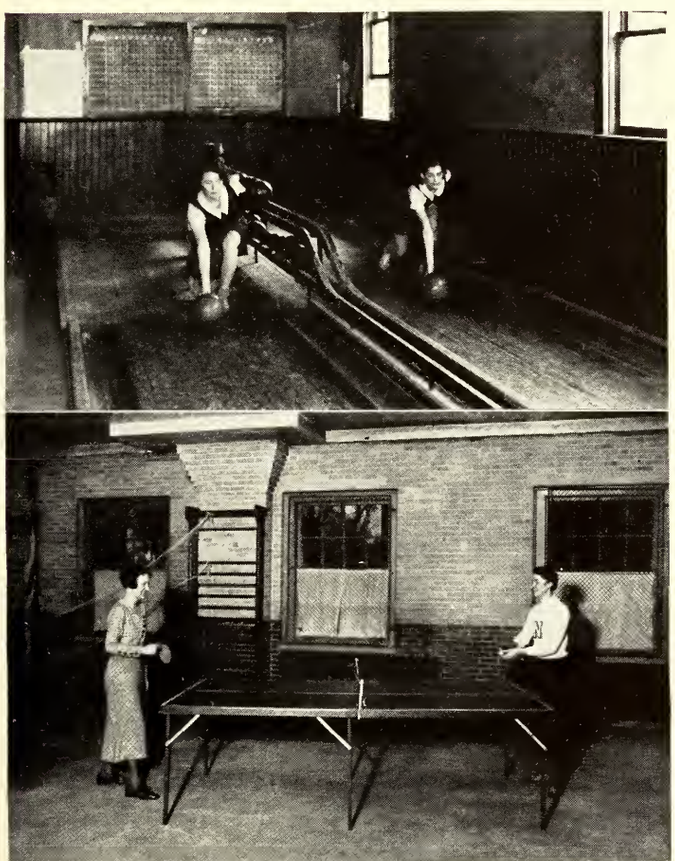
W.A.A. GIRLS' PARTY

DANCING TEAM IN THE GAMMA PHI CIRCUS

RECREATION for every girl in school demanded reorganization of the W.A.A. intramural system during the past year. Cooperation with a plan already successful in the work of the Women's League resulted in dividing Normal into 20 districts with an intramural chairman in each district. Because of the more direct contact with the girls of the school and with the better organization this program was very adequate.

Hockey and soccer again proved to be the most popular of fall sports. From the very first call for teams by the managers, space for activity was at a premium on the south campus, the use of the playing fields being alternated with the men's intramurals.

BOWLING . . . POPULAR SPORT AT NORMAL
CARRIE VOGT DEFEATS MARG COOK
ALUMNAE HOCKEY TEAM



Due to much good weather, schedules for the season went uninterrupted until the last few games which had to be cancelled. Much of the success of the new program was due to the unfailing efforts of Betty Baird, senior, who was appointed intramural manager and who was ably advised by Miss Frey.

A varsity soccer team had never before been chosen for other than intramural competition. Such a team was chosen this year. A start was made which is hoped will result in placing soccer on a similar basis with hockey.

With the Homecoming Alumni game as an incentive, candidates for the varsity hockey team reported early to Miss Brown for the practice sessions which would continue up to Homecoming. Following intensive after school sessions, November found a determined varsity ready for their one big game of the season. A margin of one goal was enough to break the alumni winning streak, the score being 2-1.

BRR . . . cold weather again . . . not too cold for basketball, ping pong, tapping, bowling, volley ball, folk dancing, and bridge . . . a spacious gym . . . adequate facilities . . . capable instructors . . . an opportunity for all to participate in winter activities.

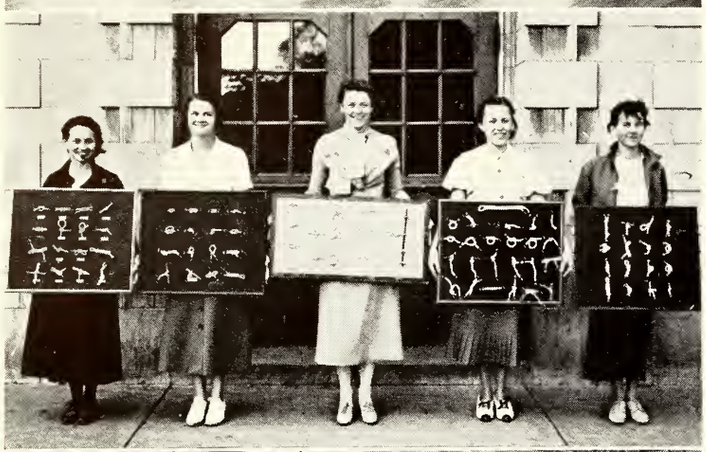
DAY BY DAY—Scenes of much hurrying and scurrying mixed with lots of laughter and chatter would certainly indicate best the enjoyment of the Freshman girls in their various activities in required physical education consisting of dancing as well as various sports.

Aside from regular class participation a very interesting extra-curricular program was arranged by the gym classes in form of a costume party. Dances learned in gym classes furnished the nucleus for the evening's entertainment. Many interesting and even some authentic costumes were resurrected for the occasion.

Therapeutic training was available to majors in regular classes. Most of the subjects consisted of corrective work, massage, and physical examinations. Clinic work is the main interest however, each girl having a patient of her own to work with.



ONE can hardly judge a piece of work by viewing it as a unit; he must see other units in order that a comparison can be made. When enough comparisons can be made one can of course make suggestions toward improvements. Certain definite trends can be seen and remedial work done as is shown by the reports of various conventions of physical education and intramural leaders throughout the country.

MARJORIE COOK, delegate to the W.A.A. convention held in Austin, Texas, this year reports several new trends in this field. Probably the greatest of these is the tendency of the change from group sports and competition to individual sports such as swimming, golf, archery, and riding. Then again we find much stress being placed on mass participation—that is—everyone out for intramural.

WE find in our own system definite reactions towards these very trends. Each year finds a greater number of participants in tennis, ping-pong, bowling and archery, especially the latter. These sports have a carry over value and thus can well be given much impetus by proper guidance.

SIMILARLY again our attempt has been to provide intramurals for all. Our enrollment of girls affords quite an opportunity for such a plan—this goal will no doubt be reached in future years if each year tends to improve as has this one.

THE Women's Athletic program offers opportunity for the girls, to meet the leaders on the campus combined with the excellent means of making friends. The McCormick Gymnasium where the timid Freshman does not fear to accost the campus-worn senior, and where all classes meet on common ground.

So striving each year for higher aims in our athletic program . . . reaching out to all the girls in the school . . . offering them clean fun with the thrill of team and individual competition . . . developing that quality which is needed so much in the later years of their life . . . "Courage."

Whether you be man or woman, you will never do anything in this World without courage. It is the greatest quality of the mind, next to honor.

Orchesis . . .

ORCHESIS is a national honorary dancing society of which the organization on our own campus is a part. Its name comes from the ancient Greek, a term whose truest meaning is "to dance." The Society was originated at the University of Wisconsin, and the members of that first Orchesis have started new groups in other colleges.

The aims of Orchesis are to help create an interest in the dance that will raise it to its rightful high place among the fine arts; to develop and further a true love of dancing, and to give training that will result in some degree of mastery in the control of the human body.

Orchesis means

To dance . . . . .

To dance will help you bear

Joy and hope, the tears of sorrow,

Courage in despair, and longing of tomorrow.

Orchesis is

Living with music

Thrilling to movement . . . . .

You'll find Life—

The expression of your soul . . .

When you dance.

Membership in Orchesis is granted to any girl in school who shows a sincere interest in dancing and who successfully meets the requirements of the organization. Tryouts, including a thorough test on fundamentals and two original dances, are held twice each school year. New members are initiated in a beautiful and impressive candle-light service in which the traditional Orchesis pledge is read by the president.

Orchesis offers excellent opportunity to those who are interested in dancing, both as an art and as recreation, for obtaining more instruction and practice than is offered in regular classes. Meetings are held each Wednesday evening at seven-thirty in McCormick Gymnasium. An elementary class period, known as Junior Orchesis, and open to any girl in school, precedes the advanced group, at six-thirty.

Miss Emma Lakin, instructor and talented dancer, is the sponsor and inspiring leader of the local Orchesis group. The president during the past year was Wava Hollis, a junior. During the year Orchesis added several new girls to its membership. The sixth annual spring recital of the society was presented on April 21, 1933, in Capen Auditorium.

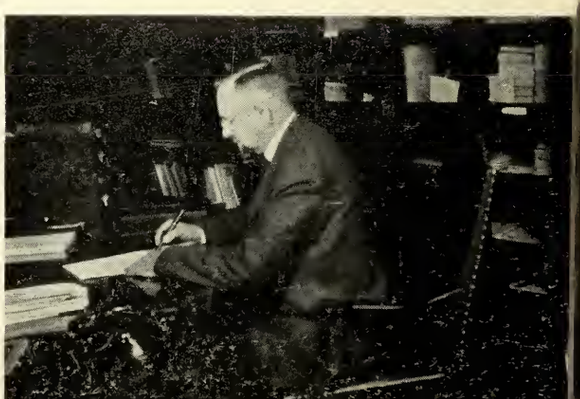
SCIENCE BUILDING

President Brown . . .

HARRY ALVIN BROWN, Ed. D., President of the University.

Dr. Brown received his A.B. from Bates College in 1903 and from the University of Colorado in 1907. In 1923 he obtained his A.M. degree from the University of Colorado. In 1925 he took his Doctor of Education degree from Bates College and Miami University.



Dean Schroeder . . .

HERMAN HENRY SCHROEDER, A.M., Dean of the Teachers College and Professor of Education; Director of the Summer Quarter.

Mr. Schroeder received his Ph.B. degree from Cornell College in 1900 and his Master of Arts degree from the University of Chicago in 1927.

Our Deans . . .

RALPH HARLAN LINKINS
OLIVE LILLIAN BARTON

RALPH HARLAN LINKINS, A.M., Dean of Men and Associate Professor of Zoology. Mr. Linkins received his A.B. degree from Illinois College in 1912, his A.M. degree from the University of Illinois in 1914, and he has also taken graduate work. He is especially interested in the study of birds and heredity, being considered one of the best authorities on bird life in the state. His duties as dean of men and those of instructor bring him in contact with a large part of the student body, and he is able to address most of these students by name.

In addition to these duties Mr. Linkins is sponsor of the Varsity Club, an organization for men, and one of the most active organizations on the campus. Many constructive changes and worth while projects have been completed during his sponsorship, (including a change in the payment of dues and the Christmas Service). He is also president of the Science Club and is largely responsible for the success of this organization. As chairman of the Lecture Board he has brought some excellent talent to the University platform, including Helen Howe, and the Don Cossack Chorus.

Mr. Linkins is one of the most active members of the faculty of the University.

OLIVE LILLIAN BARTON, A.M., Dean of Women and Associate Professor of Social Psychology.

Miss Barton received her A.B. degree from the University of Illinois in 1905, and her A.M. degree from the University of Chicago in 1930. Miss Barton's duties as dean of women demand the greater part of her time, but she finds time also to sponsor the Women's League and to act as chairman of the Social Committee. As sponsor of the Women's League, an organization to which any woman in school may belong, she has succeeded in bringing about a unity and cooperative spirit among the women of the school which is admirable. She is also largely responsible for the success of the Student Forum that is planned each year by the league.

Miss Barton has secured the confidence and respect of almost everyone on the campus through her sympathy and understanding of student life. Her interests are always with the student body. As Dean of Women and as chairman of the Committee on Social Functions she has become one of the most beloved members of the faculty.

LIMELIGHTS and highlights of the past four years reveal a strange conglomeration of events—events which, taken for better or for worse, ultimately spell progress. Old Normal has been "keeping up with the Joneses" admirably well.

We the class of '33, appreciate most fully the changes that have come about. Losing none of the reverence and sincere admiration for the old, we welcome a new administration.

Curious stages mark our progress. When "Whoopee" arrived on the campus we got rid of rhetoricals, and it was about the time when "yo-yo's" leaped and bounded from every hand that we saw the passing of compulsory "Gen. X." Convocations and new bulletin boards appeared simultaneously, made possible by the introduction of floating periods.

As a class, we I.S.N.U. four-year-olds have a lot to make us wish we were starting over.

Socially we '33's did a few things this year worth mentioning. We hired Wally Smith's Orchestra for a closed dance at Fell Hall on April 14, and just to be different, the Juniors and Seniors went off the campus to Maplewood Country Club, for the annual prom on April 29. Skip day—well—nobody will forget that.

Anyway—we've got to give our Social Committee a hand. They were Chandler Brown, Louis Hirst, Thurley Voelkel, Dora Lutz, and Yvonne Dahler.

In fact we should thank a whole crew of committees for functioning so well. Our rings and pins were selected by Melvin Nicol, Charlene Paul, Norma Cora, Martin Herbert, and Jnoeva Barnes.

The invitations committee were Doris La Master, Ruth Brown, William Azbell, Alex Wade, and William McAlister.

The selection of that mark of distinction which seniors take pride in possessing, the class jacket, was the work of Homer Shaw, Edson White, Dorothy Fitzgerald, Clara Nollman, and Harry Prescott.

Arrangements for our caps and gowns were made by Harry Cade, Carrie Voght, Robert Barber, Francis Choyce, and Dale Skelton.

In the limelight, while we are considering the high spots of '33 history, shine forth a number of names and faces, among which are the class leaders.

No one needs an introduction to the Nicol twins, of course, but when one of them becomes president of the senior class—well! "Marv" has done his duty by us faithfully and well, having first practiced at being president of Hopkin's Ag. Club and "N" Club in former years. He's been tracking down the fine points of agriculture and science, and, just ask anybody, he's no slouch about them. Marv has done big things in athletics too, notably track, not to mention his work on the Vidette and Index staffs, on the Student Council, and on the Athletic Board.

And Georgene Larson, Vice-President, (some wouldn't know who we meant if we didn't say "Larry") has been in this, done that, and took charge of the other, around here until one expects her name to be found in connection with anything important that comes up. She's probably carved her biggest niche in the field of dramatics. She's a good actress, a good "Phil," a good librarian, a good scout, and a good looking girl.

Our secretary has beautiful brown eyes, has Beatrice Griffin. And wonder of wonders, she also has a mighty brain. You should see her grades. Really she's been an officer in nearly every organization on this campus. A very successful lady you'd better believe.

Most of us don't need a "knock down" to Carl Marquardt either. He's been our treasurer this year. A rather serious blond young man who, besides being "somebody" in the manual arts department, has made good in football and track, rather more than good in hurdling.

Considering the good work Campbell Miller has done in editing the Vidette this year his name is worthy indeed to be mentioned among the campus high lights, as is Doris La Master, who was chosen as queen of the Gamma Phi circus, Chandler Brown, who was president of the Student Council, and Dorothy Fitzgerald, who was at the head of the Women's League.

We really have cause to wonder if any other graduating class has produced so many or such dazzling highlights in all the history of Normal.

Ah, yes—one other chap who figures prominently all through our four years at Old Normal—Old Man Depression. We hope he graduates too.

THE depression class entered "Old Normal" with lean pocketbooks but fine determinism. The indices of real character and growth have been seen because the class of '34 has produced not only leaders on the campus, but men and women who will find success we believe in their professional life.

Led by the Professor Ralph W. Fogler who gave his untiring efforts for a more unified group, the class has had strong faithful representatives on the athletic teams, in literary activities, on publications, and in dramatics.

Many of the original group have dropped from the class roll due to the two-year curriculum, but the bulk of the group remains and it is this group that has helped very definitely to make I.S.N.U. history.

It represents the first class to see the abolishment of compulsory assembly and the consequent initiation of the convocation program. Student opinion has not only been fostered but thrived as a result of the efforts of certain individuals in this class. The school has entered upon a new era.

As freshman class officers, the group elected George Taylor, president; Robert Bean, vice-president; Anne Lewis, secretary and Richard Peterson, treasurer.

In the sophomore year, Anne Uza became president, while Lyle Hutton was vice-president.

This year the contest resulted in the election of the following: Caroline Pitts, president; Dale Landers, vice-president; Thomas Neill, secretary-treasurer and Howard A. Oetting, social chairman.

We ask you to "take hats off" to James (Pim) Goff . . . probably the greatest of all Normal basketball players and a five sport man who on Wednesday, May 10, 1933, was honored with the captaincy of the 1934 Cardinal quintet at a dinner tendered by the varsity squad and faculty Athletic committee at the home of Coach Joe Cogdal. Goff has won letters in football, basketball, track, baseball, and tennis, and is the mainstay of this year's baseball team as well as the "Little 19" singles champion in tennis.

Lyle Hutton, fleet runner from Savannah is another star worthy of mention. It is not necessary to divulge his various successes on the track but one can rest assured that they are both rewardable and enviable.

The names of Charles Sweet, Howard Oetting, Stanley Sleevar, Harold Dennis, Tom Neill, Russel Ahearn, Harold Lester, Richard Harrell, Walter Murray, Earl Beyers, Harvey Grimes, James Elbert, Raymond Farber, Ray Gaynor, Carl Custer, William Kuhfus, Hooper Arnold, William Bremer, and Ralph Emons were frequently headlined in the sports world of I.S.N.U. These men are all juniors.

The Philadelphian and Wrightonian literary societies are composed of many outstanding thirty-fourers . . . D. Lutz, K. Spencer, L. Koehler, H. Campbell, W. Oliver, and R. Duncan are the most conspicuous.

On the Men's Varsity debate team we find Wendell E. Oliver and Robert E. Duncan while the women juniors who debated were Helen Campbell, K. Spencer, Lillith Southgate, and Marie Gianasi.

The Vidette and Index were well represented this year by the class in the personalities of Robert E. Duncan, Wendell Oliver, Stacy Armstrong, Lyle Hall, K. Spencer, Bernard Grimes, Owen Barclay, Sylvia Gross, Cecil Griffin, John White and H. A. Oetting.

In dramatics, Wendell Oliver, Caroline Pitts, Robert Duncan, Dora Lutz, Frank Holstein, Helen Campbell, Lois Lawrence, and Dorothy Sternberg have not only participated in the production of plays but have played an important part in the activities of Jesters and Theta Alpha Phi.

Next year the class will accept their buck-skin, depart from the campus confident that their school life has been beneficial and preparatory for later life.

Sophomores . . . Class of '35

B. TURNER
PRESIDENT . . .

H. TATE
SEC. & TREAS. . . .

TURNER, BARBARA — President

TATE, HALBERT — Secretary and Treasurer
Mt. Zion — Secondary Education

SOPHOMORES! What an individual and separate stage of college life is exemplified by that word! With the first awkward year behind them, and for some, the best two years ahead of them, they settle down in a matter-of-fact way as veterans that have met the primary obstacles, and knowing better what will be expected of them, apply themselves to all activities.

Last year under the leadership of Ralph W. Fogler as Sponsor, and Glenn Taylor as President, the class of 1935 set out to do things in a big way. The class had representatives in all lines of endeavor on the campus, and the members of the class of 1935 made their first year a big success both individually and in the group.

This year they are proud to say that they have Doctor Marion A. Taylor co-operating with Barbara Turner, Normal, as the leaders of the Sophomores. The other officers of the class are: Carrie Bell Abbott, Saidora, as vice-president and Halbert Tate, Mt. Zion, as secretary-treasurer. Besides these able officers, several committees were appointed. The Ring and Pin committee is composed of "Bill" McKnight, Chairman, Mabel Kofoed, Lory Sullivan, Edwin Rakow, and Eileen Peck. The class is certainly proud of its ring, and if any of you don't believe it, ask a student that has one. The Cap and Gown committee is composed of Glenn Taylor, Chairman, Erma Patterson, Kenneth Ammerman, Dorothy Sternberg, and "Bob" Elliott. The following people are members of the social committee, the persons that planned the never-to-be-forgotten Twelfth Night party: Julia Blum, Chairman, Russell Myers, "Bill" Samp, Katie Blackwell, and Lyle Hall.

One of the first of the many triumphs of the class was their Freshman Frolic. Under the leadership of Glenn Taylor, the class put on a party that was hailed by all authorities on the campus, faculty and students alike, as the best party of the year, and one of the best in a number of years. The theme of the dance was the Plantation, with the decorations, favors, refreshments, and everything in keeping with the Old South. To help the party to an even more marked success, Jimmie Bell and his Chicago Green Mill Cafe Orchestra furnished the music.

Then again this year, 1932-33, the class scored socially. The party's theme was Twelfth Night, because the party was held on what would have been Twelfth Night had we been in Medieval England. The old tradition of crowning as king and queen the persons who found the objects that were hidden in the cake was carried out with all solemnity. Loraine G. Quigley, Quincy, Michigan, was crowned queen, while "Fish" Taublee, Taylorville, was crowned king. The party was well attended and everyone certainly had a good time.

Down the path of Time another Sophomore class of Old I.S.N.U. is travelling. They aim to leave the school with many achievements, both as individuals and as a class, to their credit. Further accomplishments will be made successfully by this class. Watch these Sophomores, for their activities will be written indelibly in the annual of I.S.N.U.

FROM September tenth to June seventh several shades of greeness will have bleached from our sweet innocent faces, until, lo! we have been freshmen for almost a year. The intricate rights of way of the buildings are known to us now, most of the mysteries of college life have ben solved, and we know it all!

On the night of January twenty-first in the Women's Gym there occurred a dance for freshmen and their guests. The merrymakers, covered by a canopy of green and white, danced to the tantalizing rhythms of Lyle Smith and his band who presented the airs with their usual musical faculties.

On April twenty-second, Red Deame's Aristocrats of Peoria made their debut on the campus by furnishing the music for the all-school dance sponsored by we freshmen. The guests danced beneath a false ceiling of red and white with red cylindrical lamps which created a beautiful line.

We freshmen are planning to give ourselves a treat in the nature of a picnic or steak fry at Lake Bloomington in the latter third of the year.

We freshmen have taken an active part in school activities. Leslie Murray and George Meyer won their letters in tootball. Edward Fitzgerald, Wilbur Barton, and John Sheahan were members of the varsity basketball team. C. Reid, N. Duesing, F. Marzalek, and A. Miller were the freshmen on the track team. Several of the boys gained recognition in baseball.

But we did not look for laurels in athletics alone. Helen Marie Reynolds and Harvole Vines took part in the annual Phil-Wright contest. Anna Merle Robertson won the Edwards Medal Contest for reading. Among us that were seen in various school plays were Virginia Abbott, Anna Merle Robertson, Jean Lux, Roy Thompson, Jimmie Holley, and Richard Noble.

The success of our class this year is due to the efficiency of our officers and the efforts of our sponsor: President, Dwight Wilkey;

Our representatives on the athletic board were Helen Schuler and Wendell Gregory. James Holley and Charles Lane represented us on the Student Council.

Our class has entered into the life of the school with much enthusiasm and feels that it has successfully completed its first year.

Euclidean Circle . . .

THE Euclidean Circle, an organization on the campus for students and teachers of mathematics, was automatically disbanded with the installation of the Illinois Alpha chapter of Kappa Mu Epsilon. The Euclidean Circle was organized in the winter term of 1927-28 by Professor C. M. Mills, Miss Edith Atkin, and eighteen students majoring in mathematics. To be eligible for membership, students had to maintain an average scholastic standing of eighty in three mathematics subjects. Work in mathematics was also essential for membership.

The officers were named in mathematical terms. This year the Major Arc was Martin Herbert and the Minor Arc was Ruth Brown. Sterling Stephens served as Center and Dorothy Webber was the Inscribed Polygon. The sponsor was Professor Mills.

The purpose of the organization was to offer the members opportunities to study and discuss problems and topics in mathematics for which no time is offered in the regular classes of the school and to give the members desirable social and professional contact with those interested in mathematics.

On Thursday evening of the third, seventh, and eleventh weeks of the term the regular meetings were held. The first meeting of the year, a weiner roast at Davis Lodge, Lake Bloomington, September 29. At this time plans were made for the year, committees were appointed, and the sponsor was selected.

At the meeting of October, thirteen new members were voted in. They were: Helen Bain, Elfrieda Boehnert, Emil Mueller, Charles Marsh, Harold Dennis, Jennie Downs, Clyde Frietag, Mervel Willet, Paul Odell, Yvonne Purcell, Dorothea Koch, Bethel Lewis, and Leslie Poland.

The fifth annual Homecoming Breakfast was held in the party room of the Alamo. A large number of regular members and alumni were present. After the breakfast the alumni members had an account of their work for this year.

The programs of the regular meetings were presented by various members. On January 5, each of the initiates gave a talk or demonstration on some phase of mathematics.

Though the Euclidean Circle was disbanded, this year was probably its most active one. The goal of the oranization at the beginning of the year was to install a chapter of a national mathematics fraternity to replace the Euclidean Circle, a local organization. All worked toward this end and made the necessary arrangements. On January twenty-sixth the Euclidean Circle became a part of a larger, more powerful organization.

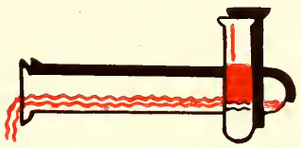
Science Club . . .



THE Science Club was organized on the campus of Illinois State Normal University in March, 1912. It has had an interesting and eventful history, throughout the whole of which the entire group has steadily moved toward higher standards and more lofty ideals in the study of science and in science teaching. To further this end the programs of the Science Club have always been designed.

The Science Club is an honorary organization whose membership is limited to students who have shown proficiency in the study and teaching of science and to faculty members of the various departments of science. It is the highest honor which can be conferred upon a student whose major pursuit lies in the exact sciences. The purposes of the organization, as stated in the Constitution of 1912, are to promote interest in science among its members to keep its members informed regarding recent advancements in science, and to stimulate its members to pursue intensively some particular science.

Since the members of the Science Club are drawn from the several fields of scientific study, they do not all have the same interests. It is necessary, therefore, that the program for the year be planned after a careful consideration of the interests of the represented groups. The program is planned by the Executive Board which consisted, this year, of President R. H. Linkins, Vice-President Homer E. Shaw, Secretary Ethel Lewis, Mr. R. W. Fogler, and Miss Jesse Rambo.

In accordance with its program the Science Club sends a delegate each year to the meeting of the Illinois Academy of Science. Members of the Science Club are encouraged to become members of the Academy of Science and to promote actively the cause of science in every way possible.

The programs for the present year were as follows:

October 18, 1932—"Marine and Fresh Water Biological Laboratories," Miss Bertha Royce, Zoology Department, Illinois State Normal University. November 15, 1932—"A Forward Look in Corn Breeding and Corn Production," Doctor James R. Holbert of Plant Industry, U. S. Dept. of Agriculture. December 13, 1932—"Some Objectives in Science Education," Doctor E. M. R. Lamkey, Botany Department, Illinois State Normal University. January 24, 1933—"Endocrine Glands," Doctor B. Markowitz, Health Officer, Bloomington, Illinois.

The officers for the year 1932-1933 were: Mr. R. H. Linkins, President; Mr. Homer E. Shaw, Vice-President; Miss Ethel E. Lewis, Secretary-Treasurer.

In accordance with its program, the Science Club sends a delegate each year to the meeting of the Illinois Academy of Science.

Women's League . . .

IN the fall of 1925, the Women's League of Illinois State Normal University was organized. As stated in the constitution which was later adopted, the Women's League was created to enable the women of the college as a unified group to function in social, ethical, and civic matters. On November 13, 1925, Ruth Ritenour was elected the first president.

In 1926-27, under the presidency of Miss Elizabeth Scott, Women's League enlarged its activities to include a strong Forum program, and the affiliation of the citizenship committee with the Illinois League of Women Voters. The first Women's League Formal was given on May 14th of that year.

In 1927-28 the year was started by the appointment of upperclass counsellors for the Freshmen girls. This was the beginning of the Big and Little Sister movement, which aided and is still aiding in the orientation of new students. The practice of having a week of noontime Christmas music prior to the Holiday vacation was inaugurated. Miss Clara Whitfield was a most efficient president during this year.

In 1928-29, the Women's League under the leadership of Freda Corrie made a valuable and constructive contribution to the student life of the campus.

During the fifth year of Women's League, 1929-30, Mary Ellen Ross served as president. All committees carried on their work in an admirable manner.

Maud Collins served as president in 1930-31. She was especially skillful in her promotion of the teas given by Women's League that year.

During the year 1931-32, many things of interest entered into our field of enjoyment and opportunity. Miss Helen Winslow proved a very efficient president. The women's room materialized, thanks to President Brown and Mr. Marsh. Ever since the second year of the existence of Women's League, this had been a fond dream. A room in the east end of the basement of Old Main was remodeled and redecorated for this purpose. The social program of this year included many lovely teas and enjoyable dances. Miss Jean Flockhart served as our social chairman. In the spring, Women's League was hostess to the first New Voters' Conference in Illinois.

During the year 1932-33, a Forum committee was added to our Executive Board with Ruth Parrish as its first chairman. Through this committee it was possible to present the following program:

March 1, 1933—"When is a Book Immoral?" Miss Esther Vinson; April 6, 1933—"What Kind of Citizen Are You?" Mrs. W. W. Ramsey, Chicago; May 10, 1933—"Why Women Must Work Outside the Home," Miss Jane Rose Colby.

The Citizenship Committee, known better as the College League of Women Voters, under the leadership of Ruby Van de Veer did a comprehensive piece of work.

From December 12 to 15, the Women's League, as in previous years, sponsored a series of Christmas musical programs in Capen Auditorium, arranged through the courtesy of the music department.

Women's League also sponsored the following social activities: September 23, 1932, Varsity Club and Women's League All-School Party; October 7, 1932, Women's League All-Girls' Party at Fell Hall; October 29, 1932, Women's League Hallowe'en Party in the old Gym; November 15, 1932, a tea for house-presidents; January 7, 1933, Varsity Club and Women's League All-School Party; January 25, 1933, A tea for householders at Fell Hall January 28, 1933, Women's League All-Girls' Mother Goose Party; March 30, 1933, A tea for all the college; April 7, 1933, Women's League All-Girls' Party; May 20, 1933, Women's League Formal at Fell Hall.

The Executive Board together with the district presidents comprise the Central Board. These presidents were:

Arvilla Hancock	Fern Garber	Louise Temple	Mona Hamm	Genevieve Mihalik
Madge Grimes	Ruth Richards	Helen Deppe	Esther Hill	Marjorie Lambert
Lucille Costigan	Hildegarde Koenig	Rosamund Tierney	Lillith Southgate	Sylvia Green
Helen Royse	Helen Reynolds	Mary Morrison	Helen Campbell

The girls of I.S.N.U. are deeply indebted to their sponsor, Dean O. Lillian Barton, who has guided and advised the League in all its activities.

EXECUTIVE BOARD

The members of the Executive Board include the officers who are chosen at the student election each spring. They assume office at the opening of the fall quarter. Aside from these, it also includes the chairmen of committees, the president of Fell Hall, and the Dean of Women.

Their meetings are held separately every two weeks and jointly with the Central Board every four weeks.

They act as a governing body for Women's League in trying to secure for the members of Women's League what seems most desirable.

The executive board of the past year is as follows:

President.....Dorothy Fitzgerald
Vice-President.....Doris LaMaster
Secretary.....Margaret Johnson
Treasurer.....Ann Cusack
Social Chairmen.....Jean Flockhart, Barbara Turner
Fellowship Chairman.....Helen Royse
Citizenship Chairman....Ruby Van de Veer

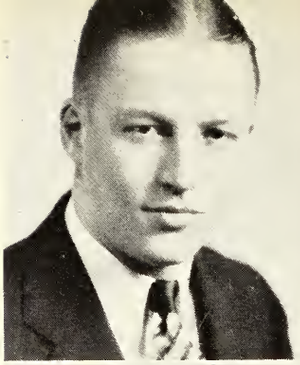
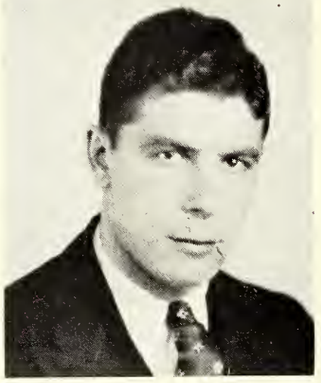
N Club . . .
Cardinals . . .

THE Cardinals, honorary inner circle of the "N" club, was organized this year for the purpose of honoring lettermen for outstanding work in various fields on the campus, and to provide an incentive to inspire the athletes to broaden their field of activity. Of the fifty men who applied for membership, Coach Joseph Cogdal named fifteen men to form the charter group on the basis of their achievements and eight novices to be taken into the circle on the completion of certain tests. As a basis for choosing the members, points were allowed for letters won, all state honors won or records held, captaincies held, outstanding work for the club and other campus organizations.





DORRENCE DARLING
. . . PRESIDENT CARDINAL

ROBERT BRUMETT
. . . PRESIDENT "N" CLUB

N Club . . .

The "N" Club, State Normal's lettermen society, enjoyed its most successful season since its organization, during the school year 1932-33. A complete reorganization of the club was brought about early in October and as a result of the club's goal of making the lettermen a vital part of the the university the organization was brought into greater prominence. The organization of the Cardinals, the creating of a new constitution, the work of committees to handle the new objectives of the club, and the creation of a publicity office were the major results of the reorganization. The objectives to promote good fellowship, high scholarship, worthwhile interschool relationships, and to stimulate and encourage both undergraduate and alumni interest in athletics were carried out in many ways by the members.

An alumni banquet, participation in the Hobo parade, and the sponsoring of the football game's broadcast were the outstanding achievements of the club at Homecoming. A benefit basketball game between the club members and the Bloomington Commercials was staged in December, while the annual dance held at the Illinois Hotel was attended by over 200 couples as the club's social highlight. In addition to supplying the ushers and doormen at all the athletic events the club played a leading role in building a successful intramural athletic program. The lettermen were quite active in other campus fields, N club members taking part in dramatics, forensics, musical activities, and both the Vidette and the Index.

W. A. A., the organization devoted to the development of highest ideals in health and sportsmanship, as well as to the establishment of high standards of mental, physical, and normal efficiency of the women of Illinois State Normal University, has completed the most successful year in its history.

With the arrival of its new sponsor, Miss Esther Hume, W. A. A. activities received a new impetus, especially the intramural program which, from the standpoint of participation, enthusiasm and rivalry, was exceptionally popular with the women in school.

The past year has been filled with many interesting social events, among which were the Japanese spring party, and the Lemon party given last fall for the incoming freshmen girls. Two banquets head the list of the more formal affairs of the organization, the sports banquet at which the annual "N" awards were presented to Dorothy Harmon, Jean Wilder, and Marjorie Cook, and the homecoming banquet at which a large number of old members renewed school day associations.

One of the services contributed by W. A. A., in accordance with its function, was the social dancing class held each week to enable students who lacked knowledge of dancing to acquire the skill and social ease desired.

The Newman Club . . .

THE Newman Club, a social organization of all Catholic students in I.S.N.U., was organized in 1924 by a group of students who met in Bloomington with Father Shea, then assistant pastor of Holy Trinity church. Meetings were first held in the Knights of Columbus hall in Bloomington, and membership was open to Catholic students of Brown's Business College, Wesleyan, and I. S. N. U. In March of 1925 the name Newman Club was formally adopted in honor of Cardinal Newman, the great Catholic scholar and churchman, and membership was limited to Catholic students and faculty of the Illinois State Normal University. Immediately upon its inception the club became a very active organization. It has been a means of bringing Catholic students together in a social relationship.

Meetings are now held on the second, sixth and tenth Thursday evenings of each term in Wrightonia Hall at seven-thirty. Current events, religious questions, readings, and music have an important place on the programs. In addition to the regular monthly meetings, at least one purely social affair is given each term.

The social activities for 1932-1933 included the homecoming breakfast, a weiner roast at the Flanagan farm, a Christmas party, a spring picnic, and a May banquet. Only those who have attended a Newman Club party can appreciate the fine times the members have when they meet together in this social way.

The monthly programs this year were given largely by the members themselves with the addition of three special guest speakers. At the January meeting Mrs. A. R. Williams addressed the club on "Father Gagnier, the last of the Blackfriars." Mrs. Williams spoke from her experiences in Canada where Father Gagnier did his work as a missionary. In March Father Gerald of St. Mary's church in Bloomington spoke to the club about his experiences as a teacher in the high schools of New Mexico. In April, Miss Esther Vinson of the English department addressed the club on "Some Modern Catholic Poets." This meeting was open to all and the English classes particularly were invited.

While the success of any organization is due in a large part to the interest and help of all its members, much of the success of the Newman Club this year has been due to its officers: George Bevan, President; Ann Cusack, Vice President; Bernadine Flanagan, Secretary; Eugene Ennis, Treasurer.

Industrial Arts Club . . .

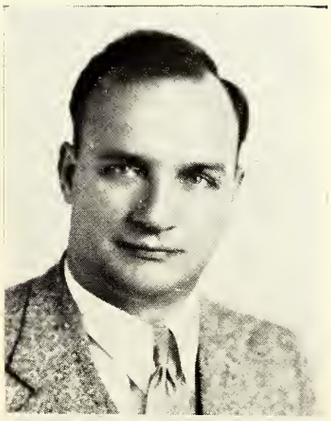
ON April 27, 1915, a meeting was held in Room 12, at which time all the male students enrolled in the Manual Arts field collaborated in forming an organization known as the "Manual Arts Association." The first officers of this organization were G. K. Green, President; B. F. Fleming, Vice-President; S. Cusey, Treasurer; H. E. Musick, Secretary; O. Martson, Sergeant-at-Arms. This group was later separated by the World War. But, in 1924, Mr. Newell, head of the department, called a special meeting of those in the department, resulting in the formation of the "Manual Training Club." In the second meeting of this club the name was changed to the "Manual Arts Club." Mr. Newell was sponsor of this group until 1930, at which time the club name was changed to the "Industrial Arts Club," having Mr. Hamerlund as sponsor.

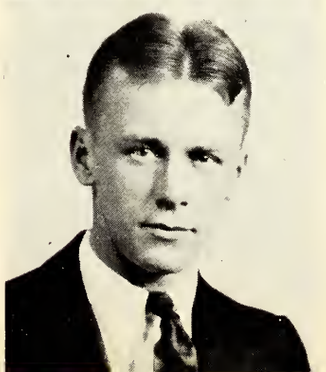
The function of this club is to promote an interest in co-operation in industrial arts and general school activities and to further sociability and friendly relations among the students and faculty.

The Industrial Arts Club has aided materially in making the Homecoming parade a success in the past, by presenting floats, and special features which go to make up a good parade.

During the year the club sponsored several dances which entertained the entire school.

C. HAMMERLUND, Sponsor
C. MARQUARDT.....Pres.





The club has completed a survey of the Industrial Arts teachers in the State of Illinois compiling data relative to improvement of the teaching and placement of the club members in various high schools.

At the time of this writing plans are being made for a banquet presenting Arthur B. Mays, Professor of Industrial Education at the University of Illinois as the principal speaker.

Each meeting of this club is confined to thirty minutes of business discussion, and terminates in a social hour, which includes bowling, swimming, and various other sports.

The club activities terminate with the annual spring picnic which is well attended, and is usually held at Mackinaw Dells or Lake Bloomington.

Carl Marquardt, President last year, headed the organization for the past year, while Milford Hanson acted as Vice-President. Owen Barclay acted in the capacity of Secretary and Treasurer. Raymond Logan, LeRoy Cox, and Owen Barclay worked on the Social Committee.

Varsity Club . . .

DONALD WARDELL
. . . PRESIDENT

THE Varsity Club of Illinois State Normal University was organized in the fall of 1919. At the end of the World War there were very few men attending Normal University. These men saw ways in which an organized group on the campus could further the interests of the men here and thereby assist in promoting the best interests of the University. The group, therefore, organized themselves into a most democratic men's organization called the Varsity Club, to which every man on the campus was to be invited to become a member. The organization was motivated by purely social objectives. Its prime motive was to assist in providing a varied and wholesome type of social activities on the campus. The members felt that the campus should be the social center, as well as the academic center of the student life. They wished to promote the highest type of fraternal fellowship among the men of the school, to exert an effort to make conditions here on the campus such that more men would be attracted to this institution, and to cooperate with all other campus organizations and the University at large in promoting all worth-while social activities of the student community.

During the present year the Varsity Club has attempted to provide for the University community the best possible types of parties of kinds varied enough to appeal to the social desires of all students.

It has especially been the aim of the Varsity Club this year to make it possible for the student body to enjoy at very low prices some of the outstanding orchestras of this part of the country at their dancing parties. The club has been successful in securing the services of Herby Kay, Joe Cappo, and the Ipana Troubadors for three of their parties. Early in the school year the Varsity Club sponsored a stag meeting to which all the men of the student body were invited. A varied program of entertainment with refreshments was provided. Two all-school parties to which the entire student body was invited without charge have been given. One dance complimentary to Varsity Club men only was sponsored. The organization has carried through ten all-school dances during the year. The Women's League and the Varsity Club jointly sponsored one all-school party. The club cooperated with the cheer leaders of the campus in sponsoring a dance and pep meeting for the entire school. Three pledge dances were given at which the men who were pledged to the organization during the fall, winter, and spring terms were guests of the organization. Three varied closed dances for the men of the Varsity Club occurred. The club arranged for a picnic luncheon dance at Maplewood Country Club to which the men who had represented the school in any types of inter-collegiate contests were invited as guests.

The Varsity Club has always been interested in furthering the religious life of the campus. To this end the men have annually sponsored in Capen Auditorium the Christmas Service and the Mothers' Day Service. This year the Christmas Service was held at three o'clock, Sunday afternoon, December the eleventh. The Mothers' Day Service was held at nine fifteen o'clock, Sunday morning, May the fourteenth.

CHRISTMAS SERVICE
FRIDAY THE 13th DANCE

As a means of bringing about greater unity in the student body and of providing the campus with a very high type of entertainment, the Varsity Club has annually sponsored the Stunt Show which regularly occurs on the Friday night preceding the Mothers' Day Service. This year the Stunt Show occured May the twelfth. This performance has always been one of the outstanding events of the college year toward the success of which the entire student body and the faculty lend their support. The proceeds of this event help to make possible the Christmas Service, the Mothers' Day Service, and the other all-university activities which the club carries on.

Fell Hall . . .

FELL HALL is the only residence hall for women on the campus of Illinois State Normal University. It accomodates eighty-five women. Nineteen upperclass women live at the hall as Honor Residents. The other residents are freshmen or students attending Normal for the first time.

The women who live at the Hall entertain their guests there and all-school organizations often use the drawing room for dances and parties.

While Miss Thelma Nelson is Director of the Hall, the business of the organization is conducted by the residents. The officers for this year are: Dorothy Webber, President; Agnes De Hart, Treasurer; Mary Margaret Gillespie, Secretary.

Two informal dances were given during the year, one during the Fall Quarter, and one during the WinterQuarter. The annual formal dance was given in the Spring. There were also several tea dances, pajama parties, and a Christmas frolic. Vivian Lannae served as Chairman of the Social Committee, and was assisted by Ann Cusack, Mildred Ebert, Rosalind Hunte, and K. Edna Johnson.

The residents of the Hall this year are:

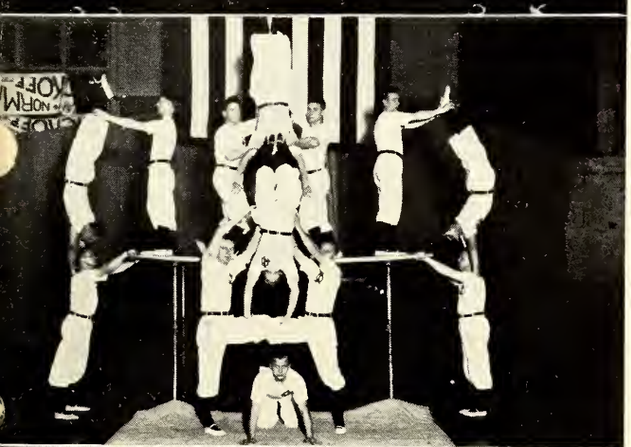
Gamma Phi . . .

THE Illinois Alpha Chapter of Gamma Phi, at the completion of the fourth year of its existence, has continued to become more active and more successful than ever. Since it is an honorary Physical Education fraternity, its purposes are to promote an interest in physical education among the students and to honor gymnastic achievement among the men of the student body and the faculty.

Success in this year's activity can be correlated with a steady development that has taken place during the four years of the chapter's existence. Mr. Horton's most capable leadership has been largely responsible for the fact that Gamma Phi has become one of the most active fraternal groups on the campus. Gamma Phi's program has included Monday night meetings at the gymnasium with the business men, dinner meetings each month at the Alamo, and varied and interesting informal groups at divers times thruout the year. Gamma Phi has secured a commodious clubroom which, with its comfortable lounge and its radio, has equalled gymnastic participation in unifying the purposes of the group and in welding all together in a spirit of sincere good-fellowship.



The pinnacle of this year's achievement was the Second Annual Gamma Phi Circus, an interesting and entertaining affair, produced largely by the efforts of all of Gamma Phi under the capable direction of C. E. Horton. It is no idle boast that this circus was the best of its kind ever produced by a school as small as this. Plans for an even more worthy production for next year are already under way.

The Gamma Phi Service Pin, an award made to seniors who have been outstanding in their service to the fraternity, was given at the May meeting. June Van Gundy, Melvin Storey, Jake Hanson, and Don Wardell were the proud recipients. At the same time Miss Doris La Master, first queen of the circus, was elected to honorary membership. Miss La Master was presented with a Gamma Phi sister pin by the local chapter.

Art . . .
. . . Club

F. TILTON.....Sponsor
P. ENSIGN.....President

REQUISITES for membership in the Art Club are two major credits, or their equivalent, in fine arts. A "get acquainted" picnic held at Forest Park in September brought together over fifty students eligible for the Art Club this year.

The objectives of the organization are: to foster an interest in the activities of the student relative to art, to afford the opportunity to learn more about and appreciate the work of people in the profession, to bring together students who may be interested and talented in art and are not majoring in that subject, and to make good usage of leisure time. Through the designing of advertising material and schemes for decoration in the activities of the club, the student grows in appreciation of the application of art principles to the activities of everyday life.

The group was divided into two sections, those interested in sketching, and those desiring to do craftwork, making their selection according to their own interest.

The usual outside activities of the club—the entrance in the Hobo Parade, the Varsity Club Stunt Show, and the annual Art Alumni Banquet —were held as in previous years.

Second place and a prize of ten dollars was awarded the Art Club in the Hobo Parade. The members of this group portrayed the funeral of the king of the hoboes in which the bums from all the nations participated. The hobo king represented Macomb, our opponent in the Homecoming game. The gay costumes, the absurd actions, and the dramatic ability of the participants won the favor of the onlookers and the second prize.

One new feature was introduced this year which tested the actual skill of the members. A contest for designing Christmas cards was held and prizes awarded for the most outstanding.

The club has been unusually fortunate in securing noteworthy speakers during the year. Miss Margaret Gardener, a Chicago artist, presented a very entertaining chalk talk relating in verse, incidents on a subway car which she illustrated, and from a single line drawn by a member of the audience she created amusing characters.

ART CLUB PICNIC

Hopkins Agriculture Club . . .

HERE we are again, pitching hay as usual. The members of the club have been very active this year and have participated in a number of the outstanding events on the campus.

To begin the year the club added much color and enthusiasm to the homecoming by sponsoring the Hobo Parade. Twice during the year, well over a hundred boys from Smith Hughes agricultural high schools in section seven of Illinois were our guests; once in the fall, to judge small grain and poultry; again in the spring to judge superior types of livestock. The Fifth Annual I. S. N. U. Corn Show was held in the Old Castle. On November 29th, The Holbert Medal Banquet was held at the Allen Club. Ferdinand Basting was awarded the Holbert Medal for the best all-round knowledge of corn. The University barn on the evening of the 27th of May was the gay scene of the Annual Barn Dance. The Ag. Club Banquet marked the close of the club's activities.

During the year the club became affiliated with the American Country Life Association and the Illinois Crop Improvement Association. Melvin Nicol was sent as a delegate of the club to the National Conference of the American Country Life Association at Bethany, Virginia. The club was striving during the year, to build up a working fund of information for a lasting appreciation of country life.

Regular meetings were held the third Thursday of each month. At these meetings, topics of interest were discussed by agricultural leaders in the community. Among these speakers were Mr. Lloyd Rodman and Mr. Harvey Stiegelmeier.

Commerce Club . . .

THE Commerce curriculum at I. S. N. U. was organized in 1914 under the direction of Mr. A. R. Williams who was the only instructor at that time.

That same fall, the Commerce Club was organized. The membership in the earlier period was relatively small because the attendance in the division was small. Seven men constituted the membership during the early part of that first year. Finally, near the end of that first year, one girl, Miss Marcella French, was added.

During the first few years, the club was reorganized each year by the faculty members, and later, as more students remained a second year, the older members of the club did their own reorganizing. Of late years, the sponsor system has been adopted.

All members of Curriculum J have always been eligible to membership and nearly one hundred per cent of them have become members.

The aims of the club have been to provide a variety of instructive and educational programs to interest and help prospective commercial teachers, and also to encourage a social spirit among commerce students by offering opportunities for social contact.

Two sets of officers have been elected this year, one in September, and the other in February: Presidents, Weldon Hanks and Agnes DeHart; Vice-Presidents, Agnes DeHart and Norton Rosan; Secretaries, J. C. Raglan and Martha Moore; Treasurer for both terms, Frances Choyce. Miss Alta Day was chosen as sponsor for the year. The Program Committee which has acted this year has consisted of Norton Rosan, Agnes DeHart, Ernestine Wene, J. Culver Raglan, and Alta Day.

THE Hieronymous Club was organized for the purpose of studying conditions of community life in small communities, and to interest college men and women of this institution in the problems of the small community.

The Hieronymous Club has been a very lively organization this year and many interesting programs have been given. The regular meetings were held the third, seventh, and eleventh Wednesday of each Quarter.

An initiation was held at the first meeting of each Quarter after which everyone enjoyed a social hour.

Our sponsor and Mr. Roth, our delegate, along with a delegate from The Grange and the Hopkins Agriculture Club, attended the National Conference of the American Country Life Association in West Virginia, October 14-16. At the next meeting these delegates gave very interesting reports of their trip and told the club about some very worthwhile meetings which they had the privilege of attending.

At homecoming time the club entered a stunt in the hobo parade. The club, including a number of alumni, gathered at the Alamo on Saturday morning for the annual Homecoming breakfast.

THE Latin Club was organized on the local campus in 1920. The purpose of the organization is to promote interest in the study of Latin and to provide a common meeting ground for those interested in the classical studies.

Regular meetings of the club were held during the third, seventh, and eleventh weeks of each quarter at 7:30 o'clock on Wednesday evening. The year was exceptional in the quality of the programs presented at these meetings.

At the first meeting Miss Carver, the sponsor, reviewed the activities of the club during the past years and tentative plans were arranged for the coming year. At a later meeting "The Roman Toga," an illustrated lecture, was presented by Miss Ruth Sage. "The Art of Roman Dining" was given by Yvonne Purcell.

October 28, the club held a weiner roast at Lakeside Country Club. At a later date the members of the club were invited to the home of Miss Carver for a social meeting. Miss Janet Smith, a guest speaker, presented an article entitled, "The Lost Civilization of the Island of Crete." The lecture was illustrated with pictures, some of which she had sketched herself.

"The Seven Wonders of the World" were discussed by the various members of the club at the next meeting. "The Temple of Diana," was presented by Agnes Malkus. "The Mausoleum at Halicarnassus," "The Pyramids," and "The Lighthouse of Pharos" were read by Alene Hostettler. Hollis Woods spoke on the "Statue of Zeus at Olympia," and Virginia Schnutzler told of the "Hanging Gardens of Babylon." Miss Carver added to the discussion by telling of the "Collossus of Rhodes."

At the next meeting, the "Marital Class" furnished a unique program. Yvonne Purcell told of the "Furniture and Dishes," and "Picturesque Glimpses of Roman Life" was presented by Doris Williams. "Women in the Epigrams" was given by Florence Quosick and Elizabeth Jones told of "Translations from Marital."

The final meeting of the year was in the form of a picnic at Lake Bloomington; at this meeting a nominating committee for the next year was appointed by the president. At this meeting the club gave Miss Carver a vote of thanks for her services as sponsor of the organization during the year.

THE Home Economics Club was organized in the spring of the year 1924 with forty-eight charter members. The first officers were Pauline Olinger, President; Cornelia Smith, Vice President; and Lois Smith, Secretary and Treasurer. Miss Jesse Rambo, head of the Home Economics Department was chosen first sponsor and has held that position during the subsequent years. The officers for this year were: Joneva Barnes, President; Louise Koehler, Vice President; and Vera Dolbow, Secretary and Treasurer.

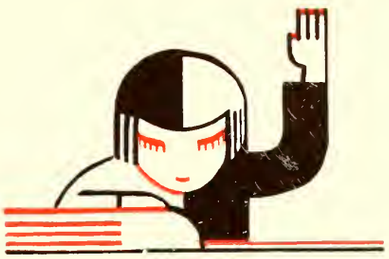
HOME ECONOMICS STYLE SHOW

The purpose of the organization is to afford an opportunity for a closer friendship among the girls in the department through social activities, to engage lecturers on topics relating to the home, and to bring about a cooperative relationship between the Home Economics department and other organizations on the campus. Any student specializing in Home Economics may become an active member by paying dues and attending meetings, which are held every two weeks.

Varied and interesting meetings have been held throughout the year. Among the social activities are the following: Freshman, Hallowe'en, Christmas, and Valentine. At Christmas time two baskets were packed and sent to poor families in Normal. During the Spring quarter the club cooperated with the Art and Industrial Arts Clubs to give an all-school dance. One of the highlights of the year was a tea given at Fell Hall in honor of Miss Adah H. Hess, State Superviser of Home Economics, and Miss Florence Fallgatter, Federal Home Economics agent of the central region. Another was the Spring Style Revue given by the Dressmaking class in order that the club and friends might get an enlightening glimpse into the activities of the department.

The club owes much of its success to Miss Rambo and to its president, Joneva Barnes.

Lowell Mason Club . . .



THE Lowell Mason Club is a musical organization consisting of students who are enrolled in curriculum D—the special music curriculum.

The Club is named after Dr. Lowell Mason who was the first teacher of public school music in our country. He introduced music, as an educational subject, in the Boston, Mass., schools in 1835.

The club was organized in 1922.

The several purposes of the organization are: to keep up a bond of mutual helpfulness between the music alumni and the present body of music students, to stimulate, and further strengthen, the students' musical susceptibilities through such additional practices and experiences as are not generally given in the regular classroom work, and to prepare members, in a musical way, to participate in those student activities to which they may be invited.

Each year, at Homecoming, the club has given a luncheon and musical program to the returning music alumni. At this time, too, the organization participated in the Hobo Parade. Competing in the Stunt Show, the club was awarded first prize, in two successive years. Regular, semi-monthly meetings are held. The membership fee is fifty cents a term.

AS usual, the Jesters have lived up to their name and reputation on the campus. Jesters is as you all know, an honorary dramatic club, local in character. Its membership is made up of students from almost every department in the university who have satisfactorily met the requirements for membership. Jesters' purposes are to encourage the production of good dramatics and to encourage amateur acting.

Sixteen pledges became active Jesters after initiation at Homecoming time. Jesters' informal initiations are famous all over the campus for their humorous character and for their wholesome fun. Ask almost anyone. The traditional banquet, in true Jester style, at the Presbyterian Church concluded the formal initiation.

After the Homecoming Play, "Belle Lamar," Jesters assisted Theta Alpha Phi, financially, spiritually, and morally, in giving the annual Homecoming Reception for the old and new members, the play casts, and the production staff.

Something new in a Jester program was presented this year;—a Christmas "Nativity" program which was given on December 14, just before vacation. Miss Janet K. Smith and Miss Mable Clare Allen directed the production. "Mama, is Stretch Miller Really a Wise Man?"

"The Perfect Alibi," a mystery play by A. A. Milne, was produced on February 22 and 23 under the direction of President Wendell Oliver. The play was excellently produced and it was well received by the students.

One of the brightest spots of the entire year was the Jesters' Character Party at the Women's Gymnasium on March 25, 1933. Everyone had a good time and the entertainment was new and novel, to say the least. "Mama, is that man Bing Crosby?"

"Quality Street," James M. Barrie's period play of the early nineteenth century, was produced on Wednesday and Thursday, April 12 and 13. The play was a lovely thing about beautiful women who became school teachers because of unrequited love, gallant young gentlemen, dashing officers, and urban life in England in general. It was extremely well done.

Treasurer . . . . . Vivian McCall
Sponsor . . . . . Mr. J. E. Fraley

THE past year has been an exceedingly profitable one for the Nature Study Club. Not only have the meetings been interesting and instructive but a far greater number of persons than usual have availed themselves of the distinct advantages of membership in the organization.

The function of the organization is to cultivate and foster interest in the study of nature among its members and to keep them informed with regard to recent developments in Nature Study. A brief survey of the organization's activities shows how admirably it has accomplished its purpose.

Professor Hudelson gave an interesting talk on "Landscape Gardening" early in the year, which everyone enjoyed. Dr. C. L. Metcalf, Head of the Department of Entomology at the University of Illinois addressed the club on a topic of extreme interest. His subject was "Tragi-comedies in the Lives of Insects with Especial Reference to Their Psychic Significance." His lecture was an illustrated consideration of the mentality of insects as exhibited by the observed tragedies and comedies in their lives. Dr. Metcalf had so adapted and arranged his lecture that it contained much of interest to the general public as well as the biologist. The Nature Study Club feels that it was fortunate, indeed, to be able to present Dr. Metcalf to the students of Old Normal: he is considered an international authority on insects and is a writer and lecturer of national renown.

Student programs have been presented from time to time throughout the year on topics in which the general interest of the group seemed to lie. These subjects included a study of the birds of Illinois, a detailed account of some of the more interesting phenomena of nature, and an inspection of the history and expansion of the nature study movement both in America and abroad. Vivian McCall, Emma Fanslow, Reva Gourley, Vera Tambling, and Roy Knuppel were among the students who presented programs during the year.

In addition to the regular meetings, numerous social functions were held. In October an out-door initiation was held at Lake Bloomington to welcome the new members. In May the club held its annual picnic, a nature outing, and later went on an excursion to Chicago with the purpose of visiting the Century of Progress Zoological Gardens at Brookfield.

Kindergarten Club . . .

THE Kindergarten Club, which was organized in 1917 by Miss Margaret E. Lee, is composed of students and faculty members of the Kindergarten department and has an enrollment well over sixty. The purpose of the organization is to discuss the problems relating to elementary education and to promote the social relationships of its members.

The Kindergarten Club has had an eventful year, crowded with social functions which began in October with a tea given for the new members in the Kindergarten room. A pot-luck supper was held later in the month as a general get-together. Plans were made for the annual Homecoming Luncheon and the Homecoming Hobo Parade.

For the fourth consecutive year, the Kindergarten Club placed in the Hobo Parade, winning third place this year with a presentation of a Hobo Funeral.

The Homecoming Luncheon was held Saturday afternoon, November 5, at the Methodist church. An address of welcome was given by the president, Virginia Clark. Miss Clark introduced the club's new sponsor, Miss Rowena Noe. Miss Louise Gamble, an alumnus of the organization, gave a short response to the welcome.

During the Christmas season the club merrily went carolling at five o'clock on the morning just previous to the start of Christmas vacation. A seven o'clock breakfast was served to the cold but cheerful songsters.

Formal initiation was held on the twenty-second of February at Fell Hall, with a very impressive ceremony. Thirty-two new members were initiated.

The Kindergarten Dance was given at Valentine time this year and was held in the Women's Gymnasium. The room was attractively decorated and everyone danced to the strains of a good orchestra.

The program this year included the following: A speech by Miss Agnes Rice on "The Professional Growth of Teachers"; an address by Miss Burroughs, a Primary Supervisor of the Bloomington Schools on "The Activity Program"; a talk by Dr. J. P. Malloy of the Institute of Juvenile Research of Chicago on "Behavior Problems and Personal Development."

The Kindergarten Club feels deeply indebted for its successful year to the fine spirit and the co-operation of its sponsor, Miss Rowena Noe.

THE Maize Grange was organized in Normal June 3, 1930, with a charter membership of twenty-six. The chapter was brought to the campus on February 10, 1931. At this time first and second degrees were conferred upon thirty-six candidates, most of whom were student and faculty members at I.S.N.U.

The Maize Chapter of the National Grange is one of the eight thousand local chapters which make up the National Grange. The general objects of the National Grange are as follows:

(1) United by the strong and faithful tie of Agriculture, we mutually resolve to labor for the good of our order, our country, and mankind.

(2) We heartily endorse the motto: "In essentials, unity; in non-essentials, liberty; in all things, charity."

The Grange was quite active during the year. Regular meetings were held the second Tuesday of each week in the Old Castle. Outstanding speakers were engaged for lectures and programs were given by talented entertainers.

The Annual State Convention was held at the Illinois Hotel in Bloomington, December 13, 14, and 15. The meetings were well attended by the local chapter and the convenience afforded by the meeting being held in Bloomington enabled them to profit by the messages which were brought.

A number of the members of the Maize Grange were included on the Convention programs. Among the speakers were President Harry A. Brown, Professor Clyde W. Hudelson, and Miss Edna M. Gueffroy. Miss Mabel Claire Allen entertained with readings.

The outstanding achievement of the Maize Grange during the year was the fact that their membership showed the greatest increase of any chapter in the state. This accomplishment was noted in the Grange Monthly, the publication of the National Grange.

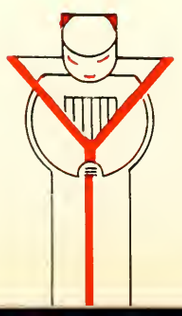
I S. N. U. has the honor of being the home of the first student Y.W.C.A in the world, an organization which grew out of the prayer meeting held at the home of Mrs. Lida Brown McMurray, November 12, 1872. From this small group has spread a movement which has reached twenty countries throughout the world.

The Young Women's Christian Association stands today as the interpreter of life to young women. It has adapted itself to the increasing complexity of present day living, and has undertaken a wonderful program of work directed to help young women to grow socially, intellectually, and spiritually into the finest type of womanhood. In business districts, in factory centers, in the small town and in the country, in colleges and universities, in professional schools, in the Orient—wherever there is a need for constructive work among women—there will be found a Y.W.C.A.

In common with other student organizations our own Association has caught the spirit of this larger program, and has built its membership around this purpose: "We unite in the desire to realize full and creative life through a growing knowledge of God." The Y.W.C.A. carries out its work through a cabinet with a chairman at the head of each department. For this year they are: Program, Mary Margaret Gillespie; Music, Dorothy Dueringer; Devotions, Mrs. Emma Blackman; World Fellowship, Bethel Lewis; Publicity, Roberta Holley; Social, Stella Ferry; Rooms, Lois Shakespeare; Finance, Maxine Maginnis; Social Service, Clara Nollman.

With this cabinet leading the Normal Y.W.C.A. has carried out an extensive program of events and activities this year. In the fall, faculty and students were invited to an open house tea at the Y.W.C.A. rooms at 209 West Ash Street. The following Saturday a large group of girls enjoyed the Annual Walkout Breakfast. At Homecoming time Y.W.C.A. sponsored the Sunday morning Sunrise Service held at the Methodist Church with Dr. McPherson, President of Wesleyan, as the speaker and with special music furnished by the Y.W.C.A. Double Quartet and the Women's Glee Club. In November, the Recognition Service, a beautiful candle-light ceremony, was held at Fell Hall as a formal recognition of the new members. At Christmas time, Y.W.C.A. met with the residents of Fell Hall for a White Gift Christmas Service. The program included singing of carals, special music by the Y.W.C.A. Quartet, and telling of Christmas stories by Mrs. Turner. Just before Christmas vacation, Y. W. sponsored a Japanese sale for students and faculty. During the week-end of May 3-5 the cabinet training conference for the Y.W.C.A.'s of the colleges of northern and central Illinois was held on the I.S.N.U. campus. Delegates from twelve colleges were present to benefit from the instructive meetings and the social gatherings that comprised the program.

The programs at the weekly meetings of Y.W.C.A. have been varied and valuable. Discussion groups, travel talks, appreciation talks, dramatics, book reviews — all of these make for the full and creative life which Y. W. works toword.



Black Friars . . .

HUNDREDS of years ago in the dim recesses of their chapels before the high altars, the holy monks of the Order of Saint Dominic would perform their mystic and miracle plays depicting the lessons and stories of the Bible and of their Order.

Several centuries later, there had developed a regular theatre, which presented not only sacred, but also secular dramas. At the time of William Shakespeare, there existed in the city of London, the famous Black Friars' Theatre, in which he acted and presented many of his plays. However, there were no women used in the productions, the feminine parts being taken by men or boys.

In 1795, a group of students at Harvard University banded themselves to form the Hasty Pudding Club, which today presents an annual production using an entirely male cast. Other universities have taken up the splendid work that has been done along this line, and the work of these various organizations has been the inspiration for the founding of this one.

In January, 1933, a group of young men with Mr. Fletcher and Mr. Fraley met in the Capen Auditorium to discuss the possibility of founding such an organization on our campus. After much difficulty, the organization finally received the approval of the Faculty Committee and the President's confirmation of this approval.

When the matter of a choice of a name came up, it was decided that the organization should be named after the original group of the holy fathers of the Order of Saint Dominic, who were known as the "Black Friars" because of the color and style of their habits.

The purpose of the organization is to foster and coordinate creative activity in the fields of music and the drama among the men of the campus.

The Black Friars because of its late organization this year, has been unable to do more than enter a stunt in the Stunt Show and to present a Convocation Program on May 24. All of the activities of the group are directed toward the planning of next year's production. Membership in the organization may be secured by fulfilling the requirements.

THE Press Club, honorary journalism society, was reorganized on the Illinois State Normal Campus this year after an absence of two years. The Club is made up of individuals who have at least one term on the Vidette staff and the prime motive of the organization is to stimulate and encourage an interest in newspaper work with the added intention of training for the direction of high school publications in the teaching field.

The school year 1932-1933 marked an increase in the number of students contributing to the Vidette. The Journalism classes for the three terms were the largest since the course has been offered here and in all a marked incline in journalistic interest was displayed.

The club met twice a month and at the meetings the Vidette was discussed in a constructive manner and plans for the various types of journalistic endeavor were carried out.

An outstanding piece of work was done by the Press Club at Homecoming when in keeping with the Hobo theme of the parade the "Hobo Wedette," a miniature edition of the Vidette written in a humorous vein, was handed out from a float depicting a hobo newspaper office.

The contributions of the Press Club were worthy of mention inasmuch as the organization had been dormant for two years. The work which the club did was responsible for helping the Vidette editor to put out a better paper. The criticisms brought up at the meetings helped both the members of the club and the members of the staff.

Some of the copies of the outstanding college newspapers in the country were reviewed and studied. Current topics concerning Journalism were discussed and reports on authorities were rendered at the meetings.

The increase in the membership of the organization and the growth of activities indicate that it may soon become affiliated with the National College Press Association. In this case the requirements for entrance would become more rigid and it would assume the name of a Journalistic Fraternity.

Physical Education Club . . .

THE Physical Education Club composed of women students majoring in Physical Education has become an active and thriving organization at the gymnasium on the campus. Their meetings, on alternate Tuesday evenings, have been both social and instructive. During the past year many members of our faculty have led the group discussions and the social functions of the organization, which have always been eagerly anticipated events.

Because of excellent equipment the Woman's Physical Education department equals and far surpasses the majority of the Little Nineteen Schools.

The club is organized in four groups, each taking its turn in work and entertainment. Every upperclassman also has a freshman as a little sister to help and advise during her first year in the department.

The Club welcomes Miss Bernice Frey as its new sponsor. From all viewpoints and in accord with the plans for the future the club has even bigger and better prospects for the coming year.

Officers for the club are: President, Miss Marian Nelson; Secretary and Treasurer, Miss Helen Deppe; Sponsor, Miss Bernice Frey.

THE Illinois State Normal Student League of Women Voters was organized in 1919 as the Citizenship Committee of the Executive Board of Women's League. It is also affiliated with the State and National Leagues of Women Voters. The League is an unpartisan organization to promote the responsible participation of women in government. It gives disinterested, non-party information on parties, candidates, and measures. It seeks efficient government and a better adaptation of the law to present-day conditions. It is the only organization which consistently presents current political problems in simplified form and untechnical language.

Last spring a delegate was sent to the National Biennial Convention at Detroit. This delegate received many ideas from other college leagues which the league at Normal has tried to carry out this year. Most of the activity of the league this year grew out of suggestions received at the convention.

On the eve of the presidential election, the League of Women Voters held a "21-er's" Birthday Party at which anyone in school was welcome to come to receive voting information and instruction.

The league co-operated this year with the Student Council in conducting Spring Elections more officially than they usually are.

The league sent delegates to the State Convention in Peoria in December and to the second Annual College League Conference in Springfield in April. The main purpose of the Conference was to study state legislation first hand. The Normal League had charge of registration at this conference.

The President, Miss Ruby Van de Veer, was sent as a representative to the National Conference of College Women Voters. The conference was held in Kansas City in April.

The organization performed some valuable services as well as gaining much valuable experience in assisting the Student Council in the Student Spring Election. The committee in charge of this was composed of the Misses Ruby Van de Veer, Dorothy Warwicke, and Jean McReynolds. The greatest contributions were preparing the ballots, assisting in the balloting and counting of votes, and in the publicity of the candidates in the election.

In summing up the activities for the year, it can be said that the organization has been more active than usual because of the National Elections. The efforts were responsible for enlightening the women in school on the various candidates and making their decisions more considerate.

Choral Club . . .

THE Choral Club of I.S.N.U. was first organized by Professor F. W. Westhoff in the spring of 1901. At the time of its organization there were about four hundred students attending I.S.N.U. and of this number seventy-five were members of the Choral Club. The Club's first president was Gresham Griggs.

During the year 1915 the Choral Club joined with a chorus in Bloomington and sang Gounod's opera "Faust" (Concert edition) with four artists from Chicago singing the solo parts and the Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra playing the accompaniments.

At the outbreak of the World War, even though there were no boys in school since they had been called away for service in the army, the girls kept up the concerts, never once letting the organization become dormant.

Since the beginning of the Choral Club, three concerts have been given every year. The programs were varied in that singers and artists other than those in the Choral Club assisted in these programs. Only once during its long life has the Choral Club ever failed to present its three yearly concerts, and then only at a time when adverse circumstances prohibited one program.

The Choral Club, for the past twenty-five years, has furnished music for the baccalaureate services at I.S.N.U.

The purpose of the Choral Club is to give those students who are interested in Music an opportunity to become better acquainted with the more classic forms of music. It is the policy of our instructor and director, Professor Westhoff, to keep the standard of the choral music and its interpretation as high as possible.

During the year of 1932 and 1933 with the assistance of the I.S.N.U. orchestra a concert was given at the Illinois Soldiers' and Sailors' Children's Home; a convocation concert was given during the winter term and was well received by the student body; the chorus also assisted with the music at the Central Division of the Illinois State Teachers Association. It is planned for the club to present the operetta "Bo'sn's Bride" (which will be given with action, costume, and scenery) sometime later in the year. The I.S.N.U. orchestra will play the accompaniment.

Men's Glee Club . . .

ALL music in the school took a great stride forward this year, but probably no organization accomplished more than the Men's Glee Club. Altogether the club had about forty male students; a remarkable spirit of good will and co-operation was always manifest.

For the first time, the apportionment board gave the glee club an apportionment to be used for a tour, which was originally planned for spring vacation, but the bank moratorium made postponement necessary. The tour was made the last week in May and included attractive concert engagements throughout central Illinois. On May 17, the Glee Club gave the Concert, as it was given on the tour, before the Normal student body in Capen Auditorium.

The President of this year's club is Halbert Tate; Business Manager, Earle Smith; Secretary-Treasurer, Raymond Oesch; and Accompanist, Harold Vines. Miss Blaine Boicourt, Assistant Professor of Music, is the sponsor and director.

The Glee Club is under the direction of Miss Blaine Boicourt who is a graduate of the Northwestern University School of Music and who received additional training at the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music, and at Columbia University. She has had remarkable success as a director of choral groups and as the builder of programs. She also directed the women's glee club at Normal.

The Glee Club made a large number of appearances besides the tour, appearing at numerous churches, high schools, and at community functions. Noteworthy among its appearances were those made at the Sunday Evening Club in Bloomington, at the junior high school in Pekin, and at the I.S.N.U. Homecoming.

Twenty-three members of the club were guests at the University of Illinois Men's Glee Club concert. Mr. Raymond Dvorak and several of his glee club members attended the I.S.N.U. glee club concert in return.

The purpose of the organization is to promote interest in voice culture among the men students of the school, to provide entertainment for various school and community functions, and to establish a good reputation for Normal in the field of music.

THE Women's Glee Club, under the able supervision of its director and sponsor, Miss Blaine Boicourt, has had a very successful year. Officers elected for this year were: Betty Caldwell, president; Clara Rasmussen, secretary. The club assisted at many school functions as well as taking part in various programs outside the school. The year was made most enjoyable by numerous parties.

The club sang at the Sunrise Service, sponsored by the Y.W.C.A., at Homecoming time, at the Methodist Church, November 6. One of the outstanding events of the year's work was the Varsity Club Christmas Service on December 11. This occasion marked the club's first appearance in their new robes. The red robes with matching skull caps added much to the spirit of the service.

The girls also sang at the following: a Sunday evening church service at the Presbyterian Church in Normal; the Bloomington Women's Club on December 13; the Daughters of the American Revolution, on January 12, at the Y.W.C.A.; the morning service of the Baptist Church, February 19; Sunday afternoon Vesper service at the Presbyterian Church, October 16. A sextette sang at a meeting of the Idlers' Club held at the home of Mrs. Manchester. The theme of the meeting was Shakespeare's works, and the girls sang a collection of Shakespearean songs. The sextette was composed of Margaret Miller, Elizabeth Zehr, Clara Rasmussen, Carita Spires, Zella Moak, and Dorothy Sternberg. Another sextette, composed of Margaret Miller, Helen Huber, Dorothy Ells, Helen Tobin, Mabel Hurst, and Irma Layman, assisted at a performance of the "Merchant of Venice," given by the Unitarian Players on April 6. The group is now working on a Spring concert and the Annual Mother's Day Service. They are planning a party to be held at the home of Miss Boicourt, May 2 and a picnic to be held on June first, at Miller Park.

PROF. WESTHOFF
. . . CONDUCTOR

THE orchestra of the Illinois State Normal University has had a busy and active year. This branch of musical activity furnishes excellent experience for amateur musicians, as well as a great deal of pleasure.

The orchestra has played for the Homecoming play and the Jester play. It has given several selections at various times when it has accompanied the Choral Club. The orchestra has played selections for convocation, the concert given at the Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphan's Home, and the Illinois State Teachers Meet.

The orchestra meets every Tuesday for rehearsal and on Thursdays to accompany the Choral Club. The music played is classical. Some of it is composed by the conductor, Professor Westhoff. Two numbers, a Scherzo and an Intermezzo, composed by Professor Westhoff were played between acts of the Jester play, The Perfect Alibi, and an Intermezzo as a number for the Illinois State Teachers Meeting.

The orchestra has good instrumentation, the sections of it being well represented. There are nine violins, one oboe, four clarinets, two saxophones, two trumpets, one French horn, one trombone, and piano.

The culmination of a successful season comes when the orchestra has the opportunity to play for the commencement exercises during the last week of school.

"OLD NORMAL" has been fortunate in having such a splendid concert band this year. There has been more interest shown in the band this year than ever before. The enrollment has been large and a high class of concert music has been used.

Last February 8, we had a blizzard, the snow was blowing, the temperature was low; still, many "red capes" were seen going in a westerly direction toward the Normal Community High School. The Illinois State Normal University band was to give its first concert.

The following morning found the same band wending its way through the snow drifts toward Capen Auditorium. There it made its first appearance before the student body at a convocation program. They played a varied, well balanced program, consisting of marches, overtures, and popular numbers.

The really big event of the year was the "exchange" concert with Wesleyan. Our band played a concert at Wesleyan, and we were given the opportunity to hear the Wesleyan band on our campus.

The band members have worked hard to give to the student body an organization to be proud of this year. The members were not the only ones who worked, because their director, Kenyon S. Fletcher, spent hours in rehearsals in preparation for the concerts.

The officers elected by the members of the band are as follows:—

President.....LeRoy Cox
Business Monogers.....Wolter Bunn ond Poul Hutmocher

K. S. FLETCHER

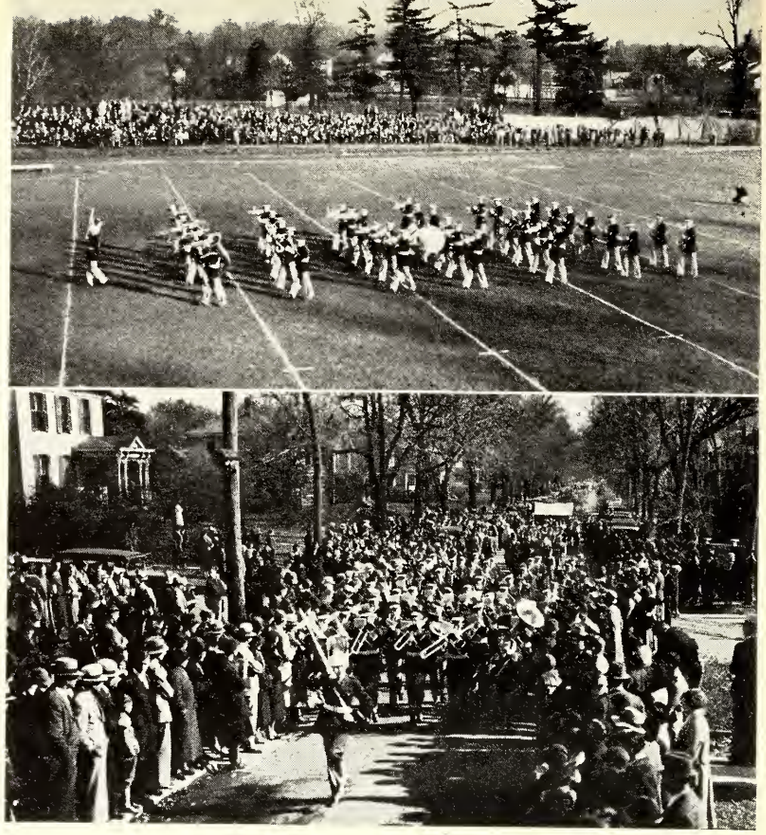
We all march better . . .

. . . to music



THE I. S. N. U. Band has completed a very successful year of service for its school. Early in the Fall Term, Mr. Fletcher met with about forty fellows to organize a Band, which made its initial appearance at our first home Football game, and afterwards played at all home games.

My! How anxious were those forty fellows for the Saturday morning of November fifth! Homecoming —and they were to march in the Hobo Parade, arrayed in beautiful new uniforms. From the Drum Major to those who were at the rear, each had an air of pride as he stepped to the music. Every student seemed equally proud of his band.

During the Winter months the Band became as much a part of the home Basketball games as did the team, every one expected to see them there. When our school played Eureka on their floor, it was the good fortune of the Band to be allowed to accompany the team.

February sixteen and seventeen were the days of Gamma Phi Circus and the Band did its part toward the wonderful success of the performances.

The Band men were privileged to attend the Basketball Tournament at Macomb, which was an important event in their lives.

At the election of officers, Paul Hutmacher of Freeport was elected President and Walter R. Bunn of Normal, Business Manager.

KENYON S. FLETCHER
. . . CONDUCTOR

While the players deserve a lot of credit for regular attendance, and for good playing, much of the success was due to the untiring efforts of the director, Mr. Kenyon S. Fletcher, who was not only a good leader, but a real friend to each member spurring him on to do better work.

Alpha Theta Chi . . .

ALPHA THETA CHI, a local professional education sorority, has as its purpose the promotion of the cause of education by fostering a spirit of fellowship, high standards of scholarly attainment, and professional ideals among its members. The local chapter has been very active this year, holding meetings of professional interest as well as social meetings.

In the fall quarter the organization held one of its meetings at the home of Dr. H. A. Peterson, with several faculty members of the Department of Education as guests, at which time Mr. Lancaster, Mr. Malmberg, and Mr. Decker addressed the group.

The homecoming banquet was held November 5 with Kappa Phi Kappa at Hotel Rogers.

At one of the meetings during the winter term, Miss Vinson spoke to the group on "The Outlook for Women in Teaching."

Two formal initiation services have been held during the year at Fell Hall.

This sorority, formerly known as Alpha Theta Chi joined the national professional education sorority, Kappa Delta Epsilon, on April 22, 1933. Miss Webb, the sponsor, was chosen as the official delegate to the national convention of the sorority held at Washington, D. C., in April. At that time, Miss Webb was elected national secretary of Kappa Delta Epsilon.

KAPPA DELTA EPSILON is a national professional educational sorority, founded this year with seven charter chapters. Kappa Phi Kappa, the national fraternity, lent invaluable assistance in its organization. The purpose of Kappa Delta Epsilon is training in service to the cause of education. While it has scholarship requirements in Education, they are moderate. It aims to encourage women to become leaders in the profession of teaching through participation in campus activities of a professional nature, through student programs, and by bringing speakers to the campus. It also encourages graduate work. Its meetings are on the second, sixth, and tenth Wednesdays of each term.

The installation of the Normal chapter occurred April twenty-second at the Rogers Hotel, and was an occasion long to be remembered. The dominant theme was the difficulties and joys of organizing the sorority. Dean Barton gave the address of welcome to the latest "baby" on the campus.

PI OMEGA PI is a national honorary commercial fraternity whose purpose is to promote interest in the field of commerce and to foster these three aims in the teaching profession: service, loyalty, and progress. Theta chapter of this organization was established at I.S.N.U. on June 3, 1928, and since then the membership of the Theta chapter has grown to 109.

This year our meetings have consisted of talks by business men, reports on research work conducted in the field of commercial teaching, a play given for the Commerce Club, and social meetings. The active members of the chapter have been working very hard on three big projects: a clubroom in the tower of the Old Castle; an extensive investigation and study of research work in commerce; a newspaper including results of our research studies and news about the campus, which was mimeographed and sent to each member.

The Homecoming Banquet was also an interesting event, and was very well attended by active, alumnae, and faculty members. The active members of Theta Chapter are: George Wilson, Annetta Silvers, Frances Choyce, Alice Hansen, Martha Moore, Bernice Baird, John Culver Raglan, Harold Kuhfuss, Eva Berg, Ernestine Wene, Yvonne Dahler, Miss Margaret Peters, Miss Mary D. Webb, Mr. Harry Admire, Miss Ferne Melrose, Mrs. Ruth Voorhees Clem, Mr. A. R. Williams, Miss Elsie Brenneman, Miss Jane Church and Miss Alta Day.

The past year has been particularly successful and marks the advance of the organization. The return of a large number of alumni to the Homecoming meeting and various other meetings indicates their interest in the organization. The growth in membership has been so phenomenal that it seems almost necessary to make further restrictions to keep it limited.

The program carried out during the year was in keeping with the three aims of the fraternity, namely, service, loyalty, and progress. This was demonstrated by the study and discussion at regular meetings of the outstanding problems in the commerce teaching field. Digests of the current commercial topics were included.

IT seems altogether reasonable that, in an institution devoted wholly to the cause of education, there should be found a chapter of Kappa Phi Kappa. Alpha Tau Chapter of Kappa Phi Kappa was created three years ago through the diligent efforts of Mr. C. F. Malmberg, Mr. H. A. Peterson, and Mr. C. E. Decker all of the Division of Education. The Education Club, an honorary organization consisting of students interested in education, had long been felt to be an inadequate organ. It was composed of both men and women and the advantages of two separate organizations were readily opparent. Dr. Malmberg was already a member of Kappa Phi Kappa at an eastern college. It was with no little joy, then, that this campus welcomed the third Illinois chapter of Kappa Phi Kappa, the strongest and most influential of all undergraduate education fraternities.

The fundamental purpose of Kappa Phi Kappa is "to promote the cause of education by encouraging men of sound moral character and recognized ability to engage in the study of its principles and problems." It is at once an honorary and a professional organization. Kappa Phi Kappa early recognized the value of a dynamic education, an ever changing, ever improving, ever increasing, ever renewing philosophy, the wisdom of which is recognized by nearly all of the prominent educators of the present. Change usually comes from efficient young men whose breadth of vision is wide enough to enable them to see the futility of a static position, and whose training and background is adequate enough to give them a full knowledge and perception of the best methods of progress. It is the purpose of Kappa Phi Kappa to produce such men, men who will be leaders in education thruout the nation.

The local chapter has experienced an extremely successful and profitable year. Each month a program designed to be beneficial to the members of the organization in their roles of future teachers is presented. Dr. R. G. Bussard, Dr. C. F. Malmberg, Dr. E. L. Cole, Mr. C. N. Mills, and Mr. C. E. Decker of our own faculty, and Dr. B. Markowitz of Bloomington, have been contributors to this year's programs. Alpha Tau Chapter took the initiative in planning a state meeting of Kappa Phi Kappa which was held here late in the Spring Quarter.

Kappa Phi Kappa has taken an active part in all campus affairs during the year. Its members are to be found in every campus activity. It has inaugurated the custom of serving as a Committee of Welcome at the Annual Freshman Party during the first week of the Fall Quarter.

Gamma Theta Upsilon . . .

ALPHA Chapter of Gamma Theta Upsilon was founded on May 15, 1928, to function as a professional fraternity in Geography. For three years the organization confined its efforts to the I.S.N.U. campus, expanding to national scope in 1931. Chapters have been established as follows: Alpha—Illinois State Normal University (1928); Beta—Iowa State Teachers College, Cedar Falls (1931); Gamma—Sam Houston State Teachers College, Huntsville, Texas, (1931); Delta—State Teachers College, Bloomsburg, Pennsylvania (1931); Epsilon—Southwest Missouri State Teachers College, Springfield (1931); Zeta—State Teachers College, Slippery Rock, Pennsylvania (1932); Eta—State Teachers College, Moorhead, Minnesota (1933); Theta—State Teachers College, Tempe, Arizona (1932); Iota—State Teachers College, Shippensburg, Pennsylvania (1933).

The purposes of the fraternity are to afford contact between faculty and students outside the classroom, to add to course work in geography through outside materials, to further geography as a college subject, and to build up a loan fund for further study in geography.

Membership requirements are the completion of at least one year of college geography with an average grade equalling at least the median grade of the school, and the use of geography as a major or minor sequence. The membership of Alpha Chapter totals two hundred twelve.

The badge of the fraternity is a bas-relief of the western hemisphere, surmounting the four points of a mariner's compass, the whole encircled with a laurel wreath. A white star is emblazoned on the north point, with the letters Gamma, Theta, and Upsilon on the other points. The colors of the fraternity are brown for the earth, blue for the sea, and gold for the sunlight.

Chapter meetings are held on the third, seventh and eleventh Mondays each quarter. Programs include reports of geographical meetings, reports of faculty research and travel, discussion of geographical magazine material. Dr. W. O. Blanchard, Professor of Geography, University of Illinois, and Dr. M. M. Leighton, Director of the Illinois Geological Survey, have appeared as off-campus speakers during the year. The last number on the year's program is the annual "steak-broil" at Lake Bloomington, held as the Founders Day celebration on May 16th.

Pi Gamma Mu . . .

PI GAMMA MU is not an ordinary honor society. It has no secret affairs of any sort. Its name is simple and modest, merely the initials of the Greek words meaning "Students of Social Science." The intention is not to add to the list of so-called "student activities," but rather to enforce and vitalize student life in so far as it relates to social science.

The Social Science Club was founded on the campus on January 28, 1929 with sixteen charter members, and on May 22, 1930, became the Illinois Theta Chapter of the national social science honor fraternity, Pi Gamma Mu.

There are about twenty-five members of Pi Gamma Mu and about twenty-five members of Social Science Club on the campus now. These organizations are functioning as one, and have one set of officers. These officers for this year are Miss Helen K. Springer, President; Mr. William Azbell, Vice President; and Miss Irene L. Nordine, Secretary-Treasurer. Mr. Clifford W. Moore is sponsor of Pi Gamma Mu and Social Science Club.

Pi Gamma Mu has seven ideals:

1. Scholarship—The ancient ideal of classical scholarship revived and applied to social science.

2. Science—Scientific attitude and belief in triumph over problems of mankind through science.

3. Social Science—The application of science to more intimate and complex problems of social relationships.

4. Social Idealism—Man evolves ideals that society may adopt as guide-posts and goal-posts for human endeavor.

5. Sociability—Men may work together to attain greater and more beneficial common ends.

6. Social Service—The attitude that science is barren unless applied to the service of man.

7. Sacrifice—Society to be built as a fine art demands devotion of time, money, energy and thought.

Theta chapter of Pi Gamma Mu has attempted to carry out these ideals in its program for this school year. We have had some interesting speakers from our own faculty and from other places where social life is stressed. Speakers from our own faculty were Mr. Buzzard, Mr. Moore, and Dr. Cole. From the faculty of the University of Illinois we have heard Miss Fannis Brooks, Mr. Ivan Wright, and Dr. Taft. There have been several student programs and also residents of Normal have addressed us. An outstanding event in the year's program was a joint meeting and banquet with out chapter at Illinois Wesleyan University.

MU Chapter of Kappa Delta Pi was installed on the I.S.N.U. campus in 1922. The organization is an honorary educational society, membership in which is based upon general scholarship. Kappa Delta Pi has held two formal initiation services this year. The first of these was held in connection with the homecoming banquet, November 5, at the Methodist Church, with fifty-four alumni and present members attending. Those initiated were: Gwendolyn Belding, Alma Martha Wittrock, Nellie Alice Paulukas, and Marian Louise Kohn. The speaker for the occasion was Mr. Noah M. Mason, a former student at I.S.N.U. and a member of Kappa Delta Pi. His topic was "The Present Crisis in Education."

At the second initiation service held February 13, the following students were taken into Mu Chapter: Vivian B. McCall, Helen J. McConnell, and Gerald P. Odell.

On January 16, Kappa Delta Pi sponsored an open program at which Professor Harper spoke on "The History of I.S.N.U."

Each year Kappa Delta Pi awards a gold medal to the sophomore who has the highest scholastic record for his two years spent at I.S.N.U.

Kappa Delta Pi members feel that the organization has enjoyed an unusually successful year both from the viewpoint of new members gained and from the work which has been accomplished. The prospects for the future are exceedingly bright and there is no reason to doubt that next year will be even more inspiring than the past. Kappa Delta Pi serves a meritorious purpose on the campuses of many colleges and universities; its ideals are high and its ambitions beneficent.

Pi Kappa Delta . . .

Pi Kappa Delta is a national honorary forensic fraternity. The purpose of the Eta chapter, on this campus, is to promote and encourage all speech activities. The organization is characterized by a spirit of inter-collegiate fellowship and of brotherly co-operation and interest. Recognition of special ability and effort is given to members by conferring upon deserving candidates a badge of distinction, proficiency, and honor, varied and graduated according to merit and achievement.

The past year has been for Illinois Eta chapter of Pi Kappa Delta, one of considerable activity and success. The first official undertaking of the group was the Homecoming banquet, which was held at the LaFayette-Blount tea room in Bloomington. Many of our old members returned, making this occasion one of the most pleasurable of the year. Other social meetings have been given throughout the year; several of our faculty members have hospitably received us in their homes. These evenings have always been the most delightful of occasions.

During the winter quarter Pi Kappa Delta sponsored the showing of the first sound picture ever presented in Capen auditorium. The picture, "Congress Dances," was one of recognized merit, outstanding in its accurate authenticity, its charming intrigue, and its subtle brilliance. The bringing of a sound picture for the first time to this campus was but a further indication of the forward-looking spirit which dominates the entire organization.

This year has also been fortunate for Pi Kappa Delta in the field of speech honors. The women's debate squad, all members of Pi Kappa Delta, won the Women's Intercollegiate State Championship. The men won second place in the conference. Twelve delegates, including Roberta Holley, Dora Lutz, Ella May Rosenthal, Helen Campbell, Beatrice Griffin, Alice Kimmell, Clifford Scott, Harold Kuhfuss, Robert Duncan, Wendell Oliver, and Campbell Miller, were sent to the Pi Kappa Delta Provincial convention at Monmouth, Illinois. Here Roberta Holley won first place in oratory; Dora Lutz won third place in extemporaneous speaking; and the women's debate teams won second place.

The members of Pi Kappa Delta feel that this very successful year has been due, in a large measure, to the efforts of Dr. Fred S. Sorrensen, head of the speech department, and Dr. C. F. Malmberg, sponsor of the organization.

Kappa Mu Epsilon . . .

KAPPA MU EPSILON is a national honorary fraternity for teachers and students of mathematics. The Illinois Alpha Chapter was installed at the Illinois State Normal University through the efforts of Professor C. N. Mills. The installation took place on January 29 in connection with a banquet at the Hotel Rogers in Bloomington. Professor Ira S. Condit of the State Teacher's College at Cedar Falls, Iowa was in charge of the initiation ceremony.

The membership consists of the faculty members of the Mathematics Department and students majoring or minoring in mathematics, who have an average grade of eighty in their mathematics courses. This includes most of the members of the Euclidean Circle. The charter members of the organization are: Professors Edith I. Akins, Elinor Flagg and C. N. Mills; student members are Harold Dennis, Halena Gould, Delbert Eggenberger, William Azbell, Jessie Shirk, Ellen Rosenthal, Sterling Stephens, Martin Herbert, Enola Shearer, Yvonne Purcell, Jennie Downs, Ruth Brown, G. Paul Odell, Leslie Poland, Dorothy Webber, Clyde Freitag, Jack Rossetter, Bethal Lewis, Lorraine Quigley, Elfreida Boehnert, Helen Bain, Hower Shaw, Mervel Willett, Caroline Pitts, Dorothy Koch, Emil Mueller, and Charles Marsh.

The officers of the organization are: President, Martin Herbert; Vice President, Ruth Brown; Treasurer, Sterling Stephens; Recording Secretary, Dorothy Webber; Corresponding Secretary, Edith I. Atkin. Professor C. N. Mills is the sponsor. The officers are named for famous mathematicians.

Kappa Mu Epsilon is a relatively new mathematics fraternity and Normal University has the only chapter in the state. The purpose of the organization is to develop an appreciation of the beauty of mathematics; to provide a society for the recognition of students in mathematics and to bring them into closer relationship; and to discuss problems and topics in mathematics beyond the scope of the curriculum.

The colors of the organization are pink and silver and the flower is the wild rose. The emblem is a pentagon with a five-pointed star enclosed.

The meetings of Kappa Mu Epsilon were conducted in much the same way as those of the Euclidean Circle. At the first regular meeting the officers gave accounts of the contributions of the men for whom their offices were named. The biggest event of the year was the installation banquet.

Theta Alpha Phi . . .

THETA ALPHA PHI is the only national honorary dramatic fraternity represented on the campus. Delta Chapter was installed in April of 1926 and has been very active ever since. The requirements for membership are major parts in two dramatic productions. Theta Alpha Phi is the highest honor which can be conferred upon an undergraduate actor.

This year the Apportionment Board granted funds to the University Theatre Board to make dramatics a student activity and, consequently, free to all students. The Thespians have done all that is possible to cooperate with the Theatre Board in a sincere effort to make the plays successful.

The Homecoming Play, "Belle Lamar," a melodrama of Civil War days, was the first play of the year. An effort was made to burlesque the extreme emotion of the dramatic moments of the play that was truly well done. After the play, Theta Alpha Phi and Jesters gave a reception for the cast and that same evening a number of the Alumni of Theta Alpha Phi were invited to Lake Bloomington for a midnight supper.

Theta Alpha Phi observed National Founder's Day with a banquet and an initiation early in December. Six neophytes became active members at this time.

Beta Chapter at Illinois Wesleyan University entertained Delta Chapter at a reception held in honor of Mr. Cloetivy, a visiting national officer. Delta Chapter returned the compliment with a reception after the Theta Alpha Phi play "Quality Street" about the middle of April.

Probably the most interesting and entertaining event of the year was the spring initiation held at the home of Miss Mable Clare Allen, near Peoria.

The Thespians feel that with the opportunity of an assured budget a much finer dramatic program can be produced.

AN open house for all freshmen started Wrightonia off on a busy year. Under the leadership of Glenn Taylor, fall term president, plans were laid for an extremely active year. Tryouts were held in September and October and a membership of about thirty-two was established for the year.

Society work was most interesting in the winter term during the presidency of Clara Rasmussen. The Wrights entertained the Phils at a Christmas party and program in the McCormick gym. A Washington's Birthday party on February twentieth was another of the outstanding events of the term.

Contest work began before the Christmas holidays and these people were chosen to represent Wrightonia in the annual Phil-Wright Contest: Martin Herbert, Leo Lutz, debate; Kathleen Spencer, extempore; Helen Campbell, reading; Harold Vines, piano; Jessie Fouts, voice; and Roberta Holley, oration.

The contest was held on February third. Wrightonia won in two events—reading and oratory.

Wrightonia members have had important places in all the literary events of the school year. The Edwards Medal Contest in Oratory was won by Roberta Holley. Leo Lutz was sent to the State Oratorical Contest at Augustana, where he placed fourth in the preliminary rounds. Helen Campbell, Kathleen Spencer, Roberta Holley, and Leo Lutz were participants in the Interstate Intercollegiate Debate Tournament held at I.S.N.U. Three Wrightonians, Miss Holley, Miss Campbell, and Mr. Lutz were sent to the Pi Kappa Delta convention at Monmouth. These people were also members of the varsity intercollegiate debate teams.

A system of programs produced by two competitive teams was introduced in the spring.

Wrightonia has accomplished a great deal this year—in maintaining the high standards she has always held, in taking an active part in all school activities, in improving the appearance of her hall, and in developing talent among her members. Mr. Harper, Wrightonia sponsor, was active all year in promoting the work of the society and devoted much of his time in behalf of the interests of the organization.

IN 1858 the Normal Debating Society under President John Hull chose the name Philadelphia as descriptive of the close harmony in which they worked. It was in 1867, nine years later, that Phil got her charter from the legislature.

So since 1858 "Phil" has been "going on," upholding her colors of orange and black. Her aim is the mental and social development of her members. She has a purpose of promoting literary and musical talent among those who show possibilities. In our activities we aim toward a closer fellowship and cooperation among those with whom we come in contact. A great part of our work has been successful because of the untiring efforts of our sponsor, Professor G. M. Palmer, who has been with us for nine years. We owe much to him.

During the first quarter much of our time was taken up in discovering in the new students those who would make desirable members for the society. In trying out these people we were working toward contest material for the annual Philadelphia-Wrightonia Contest which is held in the early part of the year. It was with great rejoicing that we came out victorious this year. Everyone was glad to join in the celebration at the victory banquet at the Hotel Rogers. In the early part of the year we were glad to enter Phil as one of the participants in the Hobo Parade at Homecoming.

We are proud of the many activities in which our members participated. We commend Wendell Oliver for his part in directing "The Perfect Alibi," Georgene Larson, James Holley, Clifford Scott, Campbell Miller, Shirley Conger, and Geraldine Bradshaw for their active parts in dramatics. Dora Lutz, who has participated in many campus activities, wins honorable mention in the extempore contest for women. Wendell Oliver, Campbell Miller and Clifford Scott did much in debating. Mr. Miller is also editor of the Vidette. The activities of the members are indeed varied.

Women's Debate . . .

THE Women's Debate Club began a new and highly active period of its existence this year when Miss Elsie Brenneman accepted its sponsorship.

A series of debates on various current topics have kept the purpose of this organization, to stimulate more active interest in speech work, constantly in view. The practice of inviting faculty judges to criticize each performance together with the holding of discussion meetings is furthering the achievement of this purpose.

The social functions began with a try-out dinner at the Campus Inn. More than a dozen candidates for membership entered the club at that time. A St. Patrick's Day party at the home of Miss Brenneman added much to the spirit and fellowship.

The present roll includes twenty-five women.

Men's Debate . . .

INTEREST in the Men's Debate Club was revived during the first week of the winter quarter with a meeting held at the home of Dr. Fred S. Sorrenson, the sponsor of the organization. Since the club's activity started rather late in the year and because of the exceedingly heavy Varsity Debate Schedule, formal organization of the club was deferred until next year. However, at a later meeting, a lyceum was organized to book programs for the meetings. Leo Lutz was elected Secretary of the Lyceum and numerous debates were scheduled for churches and dinner clubs.

Two social functions have been held during the year. The first was a reception at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Sorrenson where plans were discussed for the future. The second was a round table discussion held in the dining-room of the Home Economics Department. Mr. F. W. Aldrich of McLean, an authority on banking, was the principal speaker.

Plans are being made for a thorough reorganization of the Club during the fall quarter of 1933. Everything seems to point to the fact that "we'll be all right."

"Remmy Darlin', are you hurt? . . . Fight till your last drop of blood, Bligh, help is at hand . . . I am a desperate woman, sir."

BELLE LAMAR, a famous Civil War play, was presented to our homecomers this year. It was chosen for homecoming because of its stirring emotion and spirited action. The men of the cast were costumed in the uniforms and arms of the Civil War period. The ladies wore long voluminous hoopskirts and dressed their hair in the fashionable curls of that time.

Dealing with captured spies, raging battles, and a touching romance, the plot wended its way to an exciting climax. The hero, Colonel Bligh, scorns surrender and fearlessly awaits death. The heroine, Belle Lamar, realizing the tragic situation facing them, risks her life to permit the traitor, Marston Pyke, to escape to the north to summon aid. Just as Stonewall gave the warning that he must open fire, Marston and the northern troops arrive. Stonewall is defeated and Belle is happily reunited with her husband Phillip Bligh.

"Ah, Jackson, I told you a nation could be lost or saved in thirty minutes."

The University Theatre Board presented "Belle Lamar" as a feature attraction during Homecoming festivities.

CAPEN AUDITORIUM was the scene of a thrilling murder, when the Jesters presented, "The Perfect Alibi," by A. A. Milne, on February 22 and 23.

The play concerns the murder of Arthur Ludgrove by two ex-convicts, whose imprisonment he had secured. These two, guests in the home of Ludgrove, contrive what they are certain is a perfect scheme to revenge themselves and escape punishment.

Susan Cunningham, ward of the murdered man, and her fiance, Jimmy Ludgrove, his nephew, discover the murderer's identity through a fallacy in the supposedly perfect alibi. Susan, with the aid of her nonchalant friend, Jane West, sets a trap for Edward Carter. After much clever repartee, the two succeed in tricking Carter into making a confession.

The play is an exceedingly clever one and was well handled. The murder scene went off like clockwork, and the confession scene sparkled with sophisticated chatter.

Well, well, well, are we all here?

Quality Street . . .

"Any slight cast upon the moon sir, I shall regard as a persanal affrant."

THE national dramatic fraternity, Theta Alpha Phi, used James Barrie's "Quality Street" for their annual production. The play was given in the fashion of the early nineteenth century. The stage settings, and the costumes helped very much to create the "way back when" atmosphere.

Miss Phoebe and her sister, Susan, are very much disturbed by the love affair of the former. When her fiance returns from the war, he seems to have lost his attraction for her. He tells her how old she appears. Of course this is very discouraging to the fair young damsel.

To really bring forth a successful climax, Miss Phoebe had to impersonate her former self in the person of a niece, Miss Libby. Valentine Brown; the lover, is very disappointed in the fair niece and decides that it is really Miss Phoebe that he loves. Through Patty, the maid, he discovers the plot and brings the play to a happy close.

Resting in Yosemite

I. S. N. U . . . Geography Tour . . .

The Museum at Yosemite

DEAR BILL: Back alive from the 1932 Red Bird Geography Tour! 7246 miles in 41 days. How's that for traveling?

Yes! We had a wonderful time. We really saw scenery. Every day was a real lesson in Geography. I honestly believe we learned the unexaggerated truth about the west.

Leaving Illinois at its northwest corner, we crossed northern Iowa. It surely was the corn and oats belt, Bill. Leaving Iowa we stopped to join hands and dance around the post marking the boundary of Minnesota, Iowa and South Dakota. Wasn't that goofy?

At Chamberlain, S. D., we crossed the muddy Missouri. Next was the "Bad Lands," and "bad" is right, Bill. Nature surely tried herself at sculpturing in clay and sand.

We camped in Rapid City at the foot of the Black Hills. In the Hills we stopped to see the gigantic carving of Washington's head on Mt. Rushmore. The Black Hills are rocky and we know it. We even got stuck in a rock tunnel thru a mountain and had to chisel it larger to get our truck through.

More hills, and then we arrive in Buffalo, Wyoming. Yes sir! we were right out there in the wild and woolly west. Cattle and sheep ranches, 50,000 acres each. Some farms, huh!

Next we hit the "Big Horns," and crossed over at an altitude of 9,666 feet. We spent about three days in Yellowstone. Nature offered us plenty to look at here and the bears also made it interesting. Grrrr—rip—a ruined cook tent and several loaves of bread missing.

We crossed the continental divide and passed through the Copper mining region in Montana and also through the lead mining region of Idaho. Bill, what a surprise I got when we reached the wheat country in Washington and Oregon. I thought it would be level, and boy, I never saw such hills. If hills ever grow into mountains, those hills won't have far to go.

Crater Lake, Oregon is a beautiful spot. It's the deepest, bluest lake in the world with no visible inlet or outlet. Imagine us having a snowball fight in the heart of a dead volcano. We did, right there in the middle of the lake. We saw plenty of big trees on the Redwood highway, when we went to "Frisco." Here we toured China-town at night.

Yosemite was next, and we passed through the San Joaquin valley on the way over. We passed through miles and miles of fruit orchards. California certainly has its fertile, irrigated valleys. We saw many natural wonders in Yosemite.

Party enmasse

Next was Los Angeles and Long Beach. We attended the Olympic games and spent one day on Catalina Island. Another day was spent in touring Los Angeles, Pasadena, Santa Monica, Beverly Hills, and Hollywood, but we didn't see any movie stars. San Diego and Tia Juana were next before we started back east. We drove 18 hours, before camping at Phoenix, when crossing the desert. And what a hot place that turned out to be. The Grand Canyon surely is one big hole in the ground. We camp boys walked to the bottom and the rest of the party rode the mules down. It's 6.5 miles by trail to the bottom and it seemed like 65 miles coming up. The Camp crew captured a porcupine, when coming through Colorado, but it died the day after we got home. Kansas had lots of cantaloupes and watermelons. We came through Northern Missouri, crossed the Mississippi at Hannibal, and arrived in Normal on schedule time. Next time I'll tell you more about it, Bill. Sincerely, "Alex."

Student Council . . .

THE Student Council is a representative body composed of the editor of the Vidette, the editor of the Index, four delegates from the senior class, three from the junior class, three from the sophomore class, and two from the freshman class. Its function is to discuss plans for improving the conditions and character of student life and to represent the student body in making recommendations to the administration.

Members of the Student Council are appointed to function with the Dean of Men and the Dean of Women as the Date Book Committee which supervises the social program for the school year. The vice-president of the Student Council acts as chairman of the point system committee for student activities. The Student Council also acts as a nominating committee for all general school offices.

Each spring quarter the election is held to determine the various officers for the ensuing school year. This election is supervised by the Elections Committee which is made up of five members of the council. This year a Nominating Committee has been created to nominate two candidates for the Editorship of the Index and the Editorship of the Vidette and two candidates for the Managership of both publications. This may be regarded as an innovation in campus politics since it will greatly facilitate the choosing of candidates on merit alone.

Apportionment Board . . .

Mr. Buzzard Mr. Adams
Chandler Brown Margaret Carey President Brown
William McKnight Donald Wardell

THE apportionment board was composed of Chandler Brown, Margaret Carey, William McKnight, Arthur Spafford, and Donald Wardell, student representatives; Prof. Howard W. Adams, Dr. Harry A. Brown, and Dr. Robert G. Buzzard, faculty advisors. It is the duty of this board to apportion the money in the student activity fund.

Some of the outstanding features of the 1932-33 apportionment included a sum set aside for forty band uniforms and a provision whereby free dramatics was instituted. Under this plan, all students were admitted to the plays on the campus without charge upon presentation of their term fee receipts. Provision was also made for a glee club tour, to be made in the spring. These special allotments, along with the usual class, society, organization, and publication apportionment, constituted the years's work of this board.

Athletic Board . . .

THE Athletic Board is composed of fifteen members, five student and ten faculty. Melvin Nicol, Senior; Owen Barclay, Junior; Milton Dunk, Soph more; and George Gregory, Freshman, make up the student delegation. The faculty group is made up of C. A. Harper, W. A. L. Beyer, R. W. Fogler, R. G. Browne, T. J. Lancaster, R. U. Gooding, C. W. Hudelson, C. E. Horton, and Coaches Howard Hancock and Joseph Cogdal.

The chief functions of the Board were to approve schedules and vote upon the awards submitted by the coaches. They also gave a banquet for the football and cross-country teams at the Roland Tea Rooms in December. In May they feted the basketball and spring sports teams with a luncheon dance at Maplewood Country Club. The Board was also responsible for working out a successful new seating arrangement at basketball games.

Lecture Board . . .

FOR many years the Lecture Board has attempted to contribute to a well rounded education by making it possible for the students of the campus to hear the best that the world has to offer in the fields of lecture, music, and the allied arts. The program for the academic year is arranged by the Lecture Board consisting of faculty and student members. The student members are elected by popular vote in the spring election and the faculty members are appointed by President Brown.

The board for this year was organized as follows: Mr. Ellis Wade, President; Mr. Melvin Nicol, First Vice-President; Miss Georgene Larson, Second Vice-President; Mr. William McKnight, Treasurer; Mr. R. H. Linkins, Corresponding Secretary; Miss Mary Louise Barger, Recording Secretary; Mrs. John L. Pricer; Mr. W. A. L. Beyer.

The Lecture Course for 1932-33 consisted of the following numbers: Helen Howe, monologist, December 2, 1932; Sigrid Onegin, contralto, February 2, 1933; John Masefield, poet laureate of England, February 7, 1933; Don Cossacks, Russian male chorus, March 6, 1933; Everett Dean Martin, lecturer, March 30, 1933; Elna Mygdal, dancer, May 2, 1933.

University Theatre Board . . .

Harry Cade Wendell Oliver Glenn Taylar
Lee Askins Rabert Duncan
Charlene Paul Gwen Belding Jean Flackhart
Miss Allen Darothy Sternberg Geargene Larsan

THE University Theatre Board was organized by Miss Verna Grubbs, in 1928, to represent, as she stated it, "the dramatic department in action." Its purpose was to supervise and assist in the production of all public dramatic activities on the campus and, through its share in the proceeds of each play, to build up the permanent equipment of the stage. It is headed by the University director of dramatics, and its membership consists of Stage Manager, Business Manager, Property Manager, Electrician, Costume Mistress, Scenic Artist, and Publicity and Make-up Chairman. The board is self perpetuating, each member suggesting to the director and to the board the names of the person or persons who have proved themselves most efficient and dependable in his field of work. The appointments are made by the director with the approval of the board.

With the encouragement of some members of the faculty, the board this year petitioned the Apportionment Board to place dramatics under the support of the student activity fee for a year's trial in order that plays might be open to all students. With this move the board was empowered with the control of all public dramatic presentations on the campus.

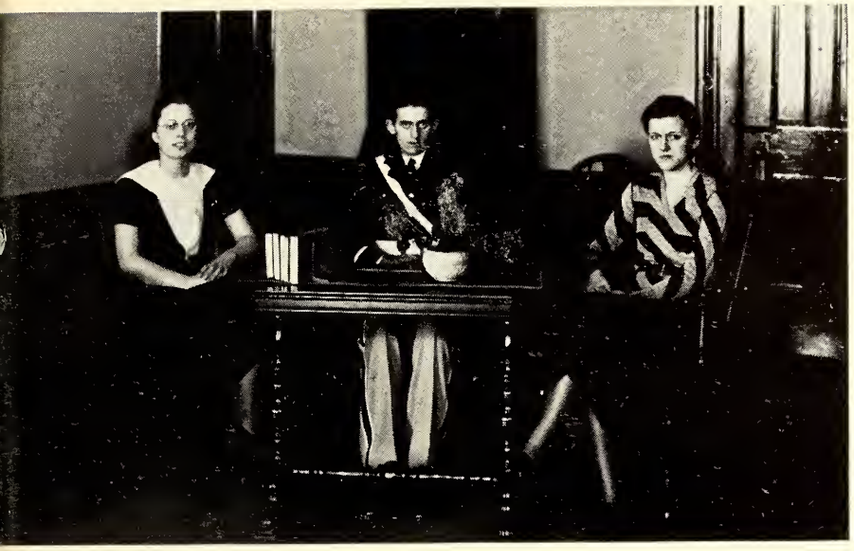
Forensic Board . . .

The Forensic Board directs the extra-curricular activities in debating, extempore speaking, oratory, and platform reading. It co-operates with the University Theatre Board in planning many speech functions throughout the year. An excellent record was made during this year by the representatives of Illinois State Normal University. Miss Roberta Holley won an interstate oratorical contest for women. The Women's Debate Team won the Little Nineteen Championship and the Men's Debate Team won Second Place in its division.



MUSIC BOARD
CLARA RASMUSSEN MILDRED EBERT

Music Board . . .

THE Music Board has been in existence since 1931 when it was created in the interests of the musical organizations on the Campus. The duties of the board are to distribute the funds which are apportioned for music by the Apportionment Board.

This year the board has been rather inactive because the Apportionment Board stated specifically the amount which should be apportioned to each musical division on the campus. Their activity was responsible for promoting music interest and they were instrumental in procuring uniforms for the band.

The personelle includes both faculty and student members. The student members are elected annually in the Spring elections. The group this year included: Mr. Westoff, Mr. Fletcher, Miss Boicourt and Miss Brenneman, faculty members; and Mildred Ebert, Murray Wallace, Clifford Sutton and Clara Rasmussen, student members.

Convocation Committee . . .

AT the opening of the fall quarter the faculty committee in charge of assemblies recommended to President Brown that the regular compulsory "General Exercises" be abolished, and that "Convocations" be held whenever a good speaker could be obtained or other suitable programs arranged. Attendance was to be voluntary. The committee feels that the programs, on the whole, have been superior to those given in the regular assemblies, and that the attendance has been gratifying beyond expectation. After a year's trial there seems to be little doubt among either faculty or student body that the experiment has been a success.

Thrill of . . . Homecoming

ILLINOIS State Normal University celebrated its twelfth Annual Homecoming on November the 4th and 5th, 1932. All the students, faculty, various committees, and alumni, cooperated generously; this no doubt made it the outstanding Homecoming in the history of Old Normal.

Homecoming officially opened Friday evening, November 4th, at eight o'clock with an address of welcome by President Harry A. Brown. The play, "Belle Lamar" by Dion Boucicault, an old Civil War Melodrama, was revived for the entertainment of the homecomers. It was presented in Capen Auditorium at 8:15 P.M., both Friday and Saturday nights.

Huge crowds gathered at the McCormick Gymnasium to hear Herbie Kay and his nationally famous radio and dance orchestra which was featured at the dance both nights. To make the dance an even greater success, he presented Miss Dorothy LaMour with her fascinating personality, and pleasing voice; this brought hearty applause from the two thousand merrymakers attending the frolic.

Speaking of Homecoming one cannot forget the Hobo parade which took place Saturday morning. Depression seemed to be at home in the parade. You could look around any corner but you couldn't see any signs of prosperity; hoboes of every description carried out varied ideas. Judging from some of the costumes you would think that good times were to be found in the distant future. Those who saw the parade haven't forgotten Earl Hovendon, the begging tramp, who carried off first prize honors in the individual stunts. Organization stunts, which numbered well over the dozen mark, presented many different and original ideas which made it hard for the judges to pick the winners. Finally they gave the decision to the Industrial Arts Department, who displayed a hobo in a forest by a campfire. Prizes were also awarded to the best decorated houses and, as the judges came to 305 North Street they said "whoa"—there were the Hall's Horses, who had carried out the spirit of Homecoming by a ladder showing the different steps Normal had taken to make a banner football year. First prize!

AFTER the noon meal was over, Students and Alumni returned from various tea rooms and fraternal gatherings, assembling at McCormick field to witness a great football game between Macomb and Normal. The band, wearing their bright new uniforms, marched on the field before an overflow crowd. Their music thrilled the Alumni hearts as they welcomed Macomb and then, formed an "N" in honor of our own school. At 2:30 the bomb went off and the great combat was on. It was a hard fought battle, to say the least, between the Leathernecks and our own Red Birds. The Homecomers were well paid for time and money spent, for it wasn't until the gun barked, ending the game, that they knew Old Normal was really victorious. The Birds walked off the field with a 13-12 victory to make this Homecoming event the biggest and most successful one of years . They were more than proud to see our football team come from behind to win from one of the best teams in the conference.

The activities were ended by the Homecoming Sunrise Service held Sunday morning in Capen Auditorium. Many Alumni stayed over for this service which ended the biggest Homecoming Normal has ever presented.

We feel confident that everyone went away with the feeling that they'll all be back next year to see an even better Homecoming celebration.

The band . . . resplendent in its colorful new dress . . . the game . . . exciting to the joyous end . . . and the Day shimmering in the warm sunlight of Indian Summer . . . all conspired to emblazon on the hearts of our Alumni a most sincere promise for a greater Homecoming next year . . .

THE W.A.A. girls at their annual Homecoming banquet. A huge success and well attended. This is a gala event and largely attended. Women's Gym is scene of the fete. Decorations are in red and white. Streamers of red and white afford an effective canopy over the tables. A striking club emblem makes its formidable appearance at the head of the speakers table.

CAMERA study of the bench. Coach Hancock in deep thought. The boys, anxious to get into the battle. Everybody seems interested. Why not? It was the fight of the year with dear old Wesleyan.

The whole town turned out for the celebration. What a crowd, what a day, and what a Hobo parade. Caught few of hoboes on bended knees. The one with the plug hat seems to know how to hold his hands. I wonder if he has prayed before? I doubt it.

"N" CLUB marches in formation in the Hobo parade. The "N"s make quite a showing and we can imagine the thrill which passed through the lettermen of former years as they stood along the sidelines. We see a number of white "N"s. These are symbolic of championship teams and have become quite prevalent on the campus during the past two years.

HERALDED by a banner announcing its arrival, the Art Club takes its place in the parade. The feature of the stunt, a Hobo funeral (a droll affair, but all a joke), did not spoil the gala spirit of Homecoming. The identification of "stiff" was a mystery and the public was not given the opportunity to view the remains.

We see this horse-drawn hearse (without the horses). This stunt was the effort of the Mad house, operated by Barney Lewis over on Fell Avenue. The corpse (which lies inside) we are told, was Les Rutledge. Since there was no sympathy for him the mourners were hired.
